Vermontville Man Commits Suicide

(Special to The State Journal)

VERMONTVILLE, Sept. 1—Russell G. Link, 46, R. 2, Vermontville farmer, took his own life at his home on Shaytown rd., seven miles southeast of Vermontville, Wednesday at about 3:30 p. m.

According to Beryl Field of Dimondale, Eaton county coroner, Mr. Link shot himself in the head with a 12-gauge shotgun.

Field quoted Link's brother, Gailen, who also lived at the farm home, as saying his brother had been despondent.

Mr. Link was an army veteran of World War II. He had served in the military police.

Surviving are four brothers, Gailen, Andrew of Nashville, Don of R. 2, Charlotte, and William of R. 2, Vermontville; two sisters, Mrs. Mabell Fuller of R. 2, Olivet, and Mrs. Emma Bl of Bellevue, and his mother, Mrs. Clemetta Link of Bellevue.

The body was taken to Lehaman funeral home, Be vue.
