Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of little Gerald, and especially for the beautiful flowers.

MRS. LULU MANLEY,
MR. AND MRS. FRED RAWSON,

WEDDING BELLS

GRISWOLD-PREDMORE

Married at high noon today at the home of the bride's parents in Cass City, Mr. Robert L. Griswold and Miss Alice Predmore, by Rev. Clough.

Miss Predmore taught the grammar room in our schools last year and for the short time she has been here made many warm friends. She will continue to teach for the present.

Mr. Griswold is a popular young man and has always occupied a prominent place in the village, at present being a member of the village council and the school board and holding the office of Justice of the Peace.

The bride and groom will spend a few days at Lake Orion, returning here the last of the week.

They will make their home for the present with the groom's mother, Mrs. Wm. Griswold, on north Main street.

The Echo and their many friends extend their congratulations and best wishes.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Brown Thursday afternoon, August 26, at two o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Gladys M., was united in marriage to Mr. Jesse C. Garlinger, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present.

The bride and groom helped to receive the guests and at the appointed hour took their places under a canopy of white and green in the north east corner of the parlor with Ernestine Benedict and Ilene McKinnis of Nashville, two eight-year-old bridesmaids. Rev. St. Claire Parsons performed the ceremony. After the young couple had received the congratulations of those present an elaborate supper was served.

The bride wore a handsome gown of dove colored satin foulard trimmed with cream net lace. The groom wore the conventional black. The young couple were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents as tokens of the love and esteem of their friends and relatives. The house was profusely decorated with white carnations, asters and green vines.

Mr. and Mrs. Garlinger are both popular young people of this place and their many friends extend to them their best wishes and congratulations. They went immediately to their home North of Nashville which had been previously made ready for them to begin house-keeping.

The relatives from a distance who came to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Goodwin of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Goodwin of Porterville and Mrs. Harry Turner of Lansing.
