

DEC. 1, 1909

Monday the bell telephone in Loveland's store was moved into a small room at the rear of the store and the booth taken out. This is a nice arrangement all around as it will give the patrons a quiet place to talk and Mr. Loveland more room in the store which is quite an object since he has moved the prescription case and some of the counters from the other store which now gives him room to display his stock in a fine shape.
