

JAN. 26, 1910

Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin died in Detroit Monday morning, where she recently underwent an operation in the hope of benefitting her health. The funeral will be held at her late residence in Vermontville at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and at Chester church at 12. Interment will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

A very pleasant family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferris, west of town, on New Year's day, when twenty-nine of the former's relatives gathered at his home to exchange New Year's greetings. The company consisted of Mr. Ferris' mother, three brothers, two sisters, aunt, eight nieces, and ten nephews.

Rev. St. Clare Parsons returned to Vermontville, Monday, much improved in health, after a two weeks rest at his home in Flat Rock. He will conduct the regular services at the Congregational church next Sunday. The subject for the morning sermon will be, "Overcoming the World." Evening service will be held at seven o'clock. All are invited. The Sunday School has organized a junior choir to furnish the music for the evening services. They will make their first appearance Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Moyer entertained their children to a fine New Year's dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kamp are visiting her father, Theron Moyer and wife this week before returning to their home in Holland.

Vermontville people will be interested in the following article taken from the Hastings Herald as Mrs. Walter Wright was formerly Miss Mae Sprague of this place. "For some time Walter Wright, the active member of the firm of P. Shultz & Co. manufacturers of bust forms, hip pads and other specialties in ladies' apparel, has been negotiating with the Coronet Corset Company of Jackson. The outcome is a deal between the two concerns, by which they will be merged into a stock company with $100,000, capital and both factories will be moved to Grand Rapids. The company will be called, The Coronet Corset Company. Mr. Wright is secretary and will be superintendent of the factory, which will occupy one floor of the Ranaville block on Lyons street. Mr. H. Joslin of the corset company will have charge of the office. We are sorry to have Mr. Wright take his factory away from Hastings, but his interests seem to demand it, and the Herald wishes him success in his new enterprise.
