

DECEMBER 28, 1910.

Guy Wicksall Dead

The many friends of the John McCartney family, formerly residents here, will be very sorry to learn of the death of Guy Wicksall, the husband of their eldest daughter, at South Haven, last week. He was a prominent attorney there. After a three weeks' siege of pneumonia he succumbed to the inevitable. Mr. Wickersall was a member of the constitutional convention and was prominent in the southwestern part of the state as an attorney and business man.

Ruth Powers is spending the cool vacation at home.

Dan Snoke and wife spent Sunday with his brother at Charlotte.

Louie and Fred Lentz were at home over Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned B. Alsover, of Charlotte, came home for Christmas.

Miss Hilah Eddy is spending the holiday vacation at her home in Eagle.

Madeline McCroden went to her home at Dutton for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. Bertha Flathau returned Friday evening from her visit in Cleveland.

Myron Hawkins of Charlotte was in town Thursday looking up insurance business.

Mesdames H. G. Barber and W. C. Alsover spent Thursday at Grand Rapids.

George Paddock went to Battle Creek Friday for a holiday visit with his people.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Edmonds went to Grand Rapids for over Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Inwood came home Wednesday from Chicago for the holiday vacation.

Ray Conklin came down from Big Rapids for the holiday vacation with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conklin and daughter Cleota of Beulah are visiting her sister, Mrs. Jay Hawkins.

Mrs. Hattie Bacon of Grand Rapids came Thursday evening for a holiday visit at Robert Griswold's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hance Hammond of Hudson N. Y. came Friday for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hammond.

Lou Traverse left Friday evening for a visit with his mother at Tillitsonburg, Ont. She has been quite sick for awhile.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd E. Hart, of Detroit, came up for Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hart.

Charles Field is in a hospital at Grand Rapids, where he has been operated on for a growth in his nose.

Albert Ackley, of Marengo, and Mel Snoke, with their families, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Snoke, Monday.

Perry Lamkin and Miss Nellie Bushwe, of Tecumseh, were the guests of Miss Rilla Helm over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson returned last Sunday from a ten days' visit with Michigan and Ohio relatives and friends.

Walter Davis has been laid up for several days from his mail route and Dwight Davis has been attending to the duties as carrier.

Ben and Carl Field, of Grand Rapids, accompanied by a friend from Muskegon, Mr. Stevens, are down for a few days' stay on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith were over from Charlotte for Sunday and Monday for a visit with their parents, Mrs. Lentz and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith.

Mrs. Bertha Flathau returned from an extended visit in Cleveland on Friday evening. Misses Grace and Nina Flathau came up from there Saturday for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Shellenberger and Miss Hazel Hull, of Lake Odessa, visited at M. Mahar's Saturday, enroute to Kalama to spend Christmas with the former's daughter.

Lewis Kidder, of Muskegon, was home for the dancing party Monday night. He is going to stay with his people on their farm, south of Nashville, till spring, when he expects to enter the Ferris Institute at Grand Rapids.

A family gathering for the time in the Griswold home was Monday. Mrs. Griswold and daughters, Della, Ruth and Catherine, of Charlotte; Graham Griswold, of Portland, Oregon, Joe Griswold, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Grier and Mrs. Opie, of Charlotte; Mrs. Bacon, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Nellie Grier, of Chicago, made up the family party, who took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griswold, Monday.

Floyd Worden is at home for the holiday vacation.

A. L. Barningham was a Charlotte visitor Friday evening.

N. C. Chilson is down from Grand Rapids for the holidays.

Perry Remaille, of Battle Creek, spent Sunday and Monday at home.

Mrs. Mae Scarvell is down from Greenville for the holiday vacation.

Thelma Cole, of Marshall, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Remaille.

Jay S. Kinney spent Christmas with his people at Napoleon, near Jackson.

L. A. Marsh, of Perry, Ohio, visited his nephew, Adam Sechler, over Sunday.

L. P. Lamb goes to Chicago the first of the week for a few days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, of Battle Creek, visited here the first of the week.