

AUG. 14, 1912.

Miss Pearl Hawkins of Knoxville, Tenn., came Thursday night for a months vacation from her musical work.

Miss Laura Church returned Wednesday evening from her work at the Shenango Valley Hospital at New Castle, Pa., where she has been in charge of the diet of the patients of that institution the past year.

Miss Margaret McCarty, a former Vermontville girl, but now of South Haven, is to be married today at her home there to Mr. Hubert F. Burgman of Fargo, N. D. Miss Laura Church will be in attendance at the wedding.

The funeral services of Mrs. Della Rea were held Friday and she was placed beside her husband in Woodlawn cemetery, Rev. Leamon conducting the services. Mrs. Rea had suffered for some time and finally submitted to an operation which was too much for her weakened system and she finally succumbed to the inevitable. Her twin brother from Ohio spent a few days here with her at the time of the operation but had to return home and did not get back here till a few hours after her passing.

AUG. 21, 1912.

Miss Bessie Bottomley of Cadillac is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Helen Hammond.

Miss Carmelita Martin returned to her home in Chicago Monday after an extended visit at K. L. Barber's.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Fuller and children of Battle Creek came over Saturday. Mr. Fuller returned Monday morning but Mrs. Fuller and children remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Snell and daughter Marion came down Sunday evening for a week's visit with their parents.

AUG. 28, 1912.

Miss Ada Bently, a former teacher of the Vermontville schools a number of years ago, sailed last Friday for Honolulu, Hawaii, where she teaches the coming year in Oahu College located in that city.

The Eaton County Fair management have engaged the Vermontville band for Wednesday's playing at the fair. On Thursday Bellevue furnishes the music and on Friday the I. O. O. F. band of Charlotte.

SEPT. 25, 1912.

Through an oversight we neglected mentioning last week the most excellent sermon delivered at the Congregational church by President McKenny of the Ypsilanti State Normal. A number of years ago Mr. McKenny was a resident of Vermontville and had charge of the village school for several years and at that time was a prime favorite here and his numerous friends were more than pleased to have the opportunity to listen to his sermon on Sunday morning.

Jay Hawkins left Friday morning for Patterson, Ill., where he goes to help in packing the apples in one orchard there belonging to a big apple raiser. The orchard will produce 50,000 barrels of Grimes Golden apples. This man owns a large orchard at St. Joseph and one at Beulah, this state, and packs nothing but the extra fine fruit, for which he gets a fancy price. Mr. Hawkins will be gone for several weeks.

Miss Evelyn Sprague left today for New York City, where she will enter the New York University, specializing in mathematics.

J. A. Pugh, who has been in the blacksmith business continuously at Chester since 1878, has sold his shop, equipment and home in that town and his week will move to Lake Odessa, where he will become a farmer. The first job of blacksmithing Mr. Pugh did in Chester on May 18, 1878, was for James Cooper, and his last job in the shop before turning the business over to the new proprietor was a job of work for Mr. Cooper's son.

CHARLOTTE GIRL WEDS DETROITER

Miss Ramona Trask and Harold Loveland Married Sunday at Bride's Home

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Thyng, Sunday afternoon, September 29, when Mrs. Thyng's daughter, Miss Ramona Trask, and Harold Loveland of Detroit were united in marriage. The parlors were artistically decorated with asters and ferns and the bride was gowned in a beautiful creation of white embroidered chiffon. At 4 o'clock Rev. Slee read the beautiful ring service. After the wedding a five course dinner was served by the Misses Helen Hageman, Edith Collins and Helen Zant.

Mr. and Mrs. Loveland are well known in this city. The bride came here with her mother at the age of eight years, residing here since. She graduated from the Charlotte high school in the class of 1907 and is talented in music and drawing.

Mr. Loveland has always resided in this city until a few months ago. He graduated from the high school in the class of 1908. He then took a course in mechanical engineering at the M. A. C. After completing his college work he was employed for a time by the Olds Motor works in Lansing, and now holds an excellent position with the E. M. F. company of Detroit. Both young people are social favorites, and have always been held in the highest esteem.

Among the out-of-town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Geo Richardson, Dr. and Mrs. Montfort, Mr. Justice and Miss Dorothy Montfort, J. N. McCall, Watson McCall, Miss Irene McCall and Miss Edna Snicox of Ithaca, Webb McCall of the U. of M., and Mrs. Frank Cawdry and children of Mt. Pleasant.

The bridal couple left on the evening train for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Detroit.

Emerson D. Granger was born July 29, 1877, in Vermontville township, on the same farm where he passed away September 30, 1912, at the age of 35 years, two months and one day. He spent his whole life in this community, where he will be remembered by all who knew him as one of cheer