

NOV. 19, 1913.

Announcement was made last week of the marriage of Miss Laura Church, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Church, and Hale B. Sackett, well known Vermontville young people, the ceremony having been quietly performed in Grand Rapids on September 24th. The secret has just leaked out, having been closely guarded for the past six weeks. The bride left a short time ago with her parents to spend the winter in Florida, while Mr. Sackett is en route with Roy E. Lamb on an automobile trip through the South and expects to arrive at the same destination in a short time. News of the wedding did not reach the village until after their departure and it proved a big surprise here when the report was confirmed.

Word was received Thursday of the arrival of another son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Warren Jr. of Detroit. Hence Dr. Snell is smiling broadly while the proud grandmother is already figuring on a Christmas present for his royal highness.

We note by The Times of Stuart that work is well under way on the homes of H. H. Church and Mrs. Helen Mears at Palm City. Cards and letters received by friends from the Vermontville people say they are favorably impressed with the place and are enjoying the beautiful scenery and climate.

Evelyn Curtis who is at West Palm Beach, Florida, for the year was recently elected a member of the Girls' Social Club, an exclusive young ladies' club of that city. She also has been chosen one of the guards of the High School basket ball team of that city, the first team being picked out of a bunch of fifty girls who were trying for the same position.

Word has been received from Mrs. E. E. Sprague, who is visiting in New York City, that a young daughter had recently arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Sprague. The young lady will answer to the name of Virginia.

DEC. 3, 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gregg and two children of Belding spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Ambrose. Mr. Gregg returned Friday while the family remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allover, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Edmonds spent Thanksgiving Day in Grand Rapids, enjoying the show at the Majestic in the afternoon and in the evening witnessing the production of "The Quaker Girl" at Powers.

Edson Fuller, wife and children of Detroit and Roy Fuller, wife and children of Grand Rapids were here to spend Thanksgiving holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller. The former returned home Saturday, while the latter remained until Monday morning.

Floyd Worden and bride of Jackson were in town the latter part of the week visiting his parents and receiving congratulations of their numerous friends about the village.

JAN. 7, 1914.

Announcements have been received here by the many friends of Harry Ambrose of Battle Creek, telling of his marriage on December 24th to Miss Eva Mae Nichols of that city. His friends here extend hearty congratulations. In speaking of the wedding the Battle Creek Moon says: A quiet wedding occurred Christmas Eve at Marshall when Harry Lawrence Ambrose, and Eva Mae Nichols, both of this city, were united in marriage. Mr. Ambrose is bookkeeper for the Hygienic Food Co. Both of the young people have many friends in the city who will wish them much joy on their journey through life together. After a short visit in Detroit they will be at home to their friends at 38 Tompkins street.

ELBERT FRANKLIN TUBBS.

Elbert Franklin Tubbs was born July 1st 1849 in Mescico, Otsego Co. N. Y. and died at his home in Vermontville, Mich., Thursday morning January 8th, 1914.

He leaves to mourn his loss a devoted wife, his son Orrin B., who is on the home farm and a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Fuller of Battle. One daughter, Mrs. Lena Warner preceded him to the Heavenly home nearly six years ago. Eight grandchildren are called to mourn his loss. Three brothers, Newton of Grand Haven, George H., of Grants

Pass, Oregon, and Dean of Detroit. Also three sisters. Mrs. Mary Claffin Mrs. Amos Claffin and Mrs. Chas McImber, all of Charlotte. Mr. S. E. Canaan of DeKalb Junction, N. Y., arrived home Sunday for a visit with her mother. Mrs. A. C. Pope, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Barber went to Detroit Friday night for a short visit with the latter's brother, Arthur Wilde, who appeared in that city with the New York Symphony orchestra.

Mrs. Wm. Griswold and daughter Katherin leave Sunday for Portland, Oregon, to make an extended visit with her two sons, Robert and G. A. Griswold. Miss Della Griswold accompanies them to Chicago, going from there to Kansas City, where she will visit while her mother and sister are in the west.—Charlotte Republican.

FEB. 4, 1914.

Have you noticed the sprightly trot of Allen Faust for the past week? Friends have remarked about it and patrons of route No. 4 are also serving his desire to make the daily circuit in record time. Well there's a reason for all these tango movements. A young son arrived at the Faust home on January 27th and Al is overjoyed at his appearance that he just can't keep away any longer than is absolutely necessary.

166