

ing in conjunction with a social evening once a year. This meeting shall be some time during commencement week. The dues of the association shall be twenty-five cents a year, payable to the treasurer at each annual meeting."

The following officers were elected for the year 1915-16: President, Winifred E. Wells; vice-president, Louis P. Lamb; secretary, Mary Green-Hull; treasurer, Dwight A. Davis. All of the officers reside in Vermontville, if any of the alumni desire to communicate with them. At the close of the business meeting ice cream, cake and punch were served.

The following program was given, Winifred Wells acting as toastmistress: Clarinet solo, H. F. Clarke; vocal solo, "Out on the Deep," Hubert Wilson; "Cheer, Cheer, the Gangs All Here," Clair Beck; impromptu, Roy French; original poem, Bessie Granger; impromptu, Paul Nagle; "Reminiscences," Roy Hammond; impromptu, Vern Slout; vocal solo, "In the Garden of Your Heart," Della Stiles; impromptu, Grace Hawkins-Snell; impromptu, Myrta Tyler; impromptu, Ruth Powers; "The Baby Alumni," H. F. Clarke; impromptu, John Leamon; piano solo, "Silver Spring," Grace Hawkins-Snell. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing the old songs and renewing old acquaintances.

The success of the evening was due in a large measure to the efficient work of the various committees, which were as follows:

Committee to draft a constitution—Evelyn Sprague and Louie Lamb.

Program committee—Jessie Williams-Bowman and Dwight Davis.

Decoration committee—Vern Slout. Refreshment committee—Frances Sprague, Ora Hallenbeck, May Norris, Effie Campbell-Beck, Nina Remalie-Lamb and Hubert Wilson.

In the receiving line were found Jessie Williams-Bowman, Glenn Lake, Beulah Smith-Lake, Supt. H. F. Clarke, Mrs. Clarke and Myrtle Leamon.

Those present were Neva Wells-Campbell, May Norris, Roy Hammond, Myrta Tyler from Lansing, Jessie Williams-Bowman, Roy French from DePere, Wisconsin, Myrtle Satterlee-Hayward, Ida Muir-Miles, Mammie Deer-Halbisen from Charlotte, Anna Raudall-Tubbs, Paul Nagle from Albion, Grace Hawkins-Snell from Grand Rapids, Leroy Snell from Grand Rapids, Charles Stiles, Effie Campbell-Beck, Hubert Wilson, Bessie Granger from Charlotte, Dwight Davis, Louie Lamb, Clair Beck from Hastings, Glenn Lake, Alice Green-Barningham, Evelyn Sprague, Gladys Brown-Garlinger of Nashville, Elsie Rickle-Offley, Ora Hallenbeck, Beulah Smith-Lake, Ruth Powers, Howard Hay, Blanche Sprague-Hay, Winifred Wells, Edgar Sprague, Hazel Wells, Ala Satterlee, Will Barningham, Lois Hall-Hawes, Harry Hawes, Donald Carey, Mary Green-Hull, Vern Slout, Dot Brown, Burr Chance, Nellie Wells-Barningham, Tom Dancer, Anna Dooling, Max Carey, Kennon Hull, Bertha Dancer, Della Stiles, Frank Shetenhelm, Iva Granger, Frances Sprague, Myrtle Leamon, Frances Kroger, Leta Eitel, Ben Slout, Everett Bisel, Olive Leamon, Rowena Deer, John Leamon, Margaret Shetenhelm, Dale Campbell, Laura Potter, Violetta Wells, Marion Demaray, Ilo Ferris, Robert Childs, Iva Rich, Supt. and Mrs. H. F. Clarke, Miss Hazel Stace and Miss Jennie Martin.

Judging by the interest shown there will be a larger attendance next year than there was this. It is suggested that the alumni present at this meeting write to the other members of their classes and plan definitely on a class reunion to be held the day of the alumni reception June, 1916.

SEPT. 1, 1915.

To say that the day was a big success is a mild way of putting it. It was a grand triumph of the biggest, happiest one day celebration that Vermontville has ever had. No better tribute can be paid to the program than to say that everyone came expecting to be entertained with the best from morning till night and went away perfectly satisfied. Music for the day was not lacking neither in quantity, quality nor variety. Kuenzel's band was more than equal to the occasion and we speak for the community in extending them thanks for the manner in which they did their part in entertaining us.

The Auto Parade.

Never in the history of Vermontville has there been seen as pretty a display as was that of the automobile parade. There were nine beautifully decorated cars in the parade representing a num-

For the societies of the town was a regrettable fact that all of other societies did not join in decorating cars for the parade.

The cars presented by these different societies were all extremely beautiful and the judges had a hard time to decide which should be given the prizes. The judges who passed upon the cars were: Mrs. L. J. Dann, Mrs. F. P. Town of Charlotte, Mrs. L. D. Bene-
