

groom, Miss Anderson, Mr. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Bainbridge motored to Grand Rapids for a wedding dinner at Hotel Browning, after which the bride and groom left for a trip through Colorado and will be at home after November 1st at 4719 Dover street, Chicago, Ill.

Miss McCrodan is a relative of the C. A. Anderson family and is one of Vermontville's most accomplished young ladies, while the groom is an official of the Pullman Company of Chicago.

The Echo together with all their many friends in and around Vermontville give them their blessing and wish them many happy days to come.

OCTOBER 2, 1918.

Bessie Hawkins Ethel Powers, and Lois Gaut went last Friday to Xpsilanti to attend school at the State Normal.

Misses Norena Snell and Maud Morgan Mrs. C. S. Snell and Mrs. Diehl were Nashville visitors, last Friday. Mrs. Snell and Mrs. Diehl called on Mrs. H. H. Church in the afternoon.

Townsend, who has made her home at the Tubbs farm for many years, has moved to the home of Mrs. Sarah Pennington of Charlotte.

Sergeant Major Philip Barber was home over Sunday.

Mr. John Ploof and family called on Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. McLaughlin, Sunday evening.

Why pay war prices for Printing. No advance at the Echo Office.

Mrs. Edmund Sprague was called to Grand Ledge, last Friday by the illness of her daughter, Miss Celia Sprague, who was suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. Mrs. Sprague returned home Monday leaving Miss Sprague much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Tubbs and Mrs. Alice Tubbs attended a birthday surprise party Tuesday afternoon on Mrs. Jennie Clafin Ball of Montana, which was held at the farm home of her brother, Mr. Amos Clafin of Benton.

Mrs. Laura Sackett and children and Miss Edna Church also Mrs. Mae Scarvell of Nashville spent Saturday afternoon in Vermontville. Mrs. Church's health is reported much improved.

OCTOBER 9, 1918.

Miss Jennie Martin entertained a company of ladies Thursday afternoon in honor of her friend, Mrs. Eugene Phillips, and daughter-in-law of Anacorter, Washington. Mrs. W. E. Imes also entertained a few ladies to dinner one day last week in honor of Mrs. Phillips and daughter-in-law.

Mrs. Griswold of Chicago has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Benedict.

Mrs. Mary Hulst received a cablegram last week announcing the fact that Captain John Faust is now Major John Faust. He is doing as well as could be expected having two important happenings so close together. His being made Major bears evidence to the fact that he was up at the head of the procession when they started the Hun on the run. Vermontville is justly proud of John as very few towns that we know of can boast of a Major. On Monday morning another telegram was received announcing the fact that John had arrived in U. S. A. It is as follows:

"To Mrs. Mary Hulst, Vermontville, Mich.

Arrived Camp Stuart, Newport News, Va., feeling quite good. Will be transferred in a few days to another hospital. Wire as soon as located.

John Faust,

OCTOBER 30, 1918.

Mr. Oscar Mead, of Jackson, an old resident of Vermontville, was brought here for burial in Woodlawn cemetery, Sunday. Mr. Mead used to live in the residence now owned by Mrs. Lillian Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb, Mrs. Wright and Roy Lamb leave Thursday morning for Palm City, Florida, to spend the winter.

Mrs. J. N. Hawkins of Vermontville, Michigan, arrived Saturday morning to spend the winter here with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Curtis. She was accompanied on her trip by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. V. D. Hawkins of Cleveland. The latter will remain for a few days. The Tropical Sun, West Palm Beach, Florida.

Miss Myrta Tyler, of the Lansing schools is home on account of the closing of the schools there, the out-of-town teachers being excused until school begins.

Little Francis Shetenhelm has the chickenpox.