THOMAS HUNTER

Thomas Hunter died Monday morning, April 4th, at his home in the Hunter district, after several weeks of sickness. He contracted diphtheria some time ago, which only aggravated other diseases, and made his recovery impossible. His death was due in a large degree to Bright's disease.

Mr. Hunter lived for many years in Sunfield township, on what is known as Hunter street. He was a prosperous farmer and a most highly esteemed citizen.

He was born February 14th, 1872, and was married to Mary E. Downs, April 4th, 1897. To this union was born one daughter, Lucile, who with her mother survive. He also leaves to mourn their loss, a father, Henry S. Hunter, and three brothers, John E. Hunter, Wm. R. Hunter, and Fred J. Withrell.

MURPHY—BARBER WEDDING

Charming in all its appointments was the wedding which took place at high noon today in St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel, when Miss Helen Bollons Murphy, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Murphy of 80 Cleveland street, became the bride of Philip Homer Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Barber of Vermontville. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends about May 15, at their new home in Charlotte, where the groom is connected with the Eaton County Savings Bank. He is a member of one of Vermontville's oldest as well as prominent families and is a progressive young business man. His bride is one of Battle Creek's popular and talented young women. She graduated from the high school with the class of 1916 and from the Battle Creek Conservatory of Music in 1917, later attending the University school of Music at Ann Arbor. Many prenuptial parties have been given of late for her by her friends. The out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Nadelhoffer of Joliet, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott of Kalamazoo; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. DePlanta of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Alsover of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts of Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. William Alsover, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barber, Mr. Vance Barber, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Barber, the groom's parents, all of Vermontville; Mrs. E. C. Brigham of Plainwell; Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Strong of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simon of Bellevue; Muir Lind of Detroit; W. C. Dyer of Bellevue, and Miss Helen Dorothy Haymaker of Detroit.
