

Mrs. J. N. Hawkins is in town for a few weeks.

Miss Addie Corey closed a very successful year at the Chance school, Wednesday.

Mrs. Hance Hammond and Dana Hammond motored to Greencastle, Indiana, last week Wednesday, for a short visit with the former's husband. Dana returned by train on Friday and Mrs. Hammond on Monday, leaving the car for Mr. Hammond.

Mrs. Canberg and children and her mother, Mrs. Warner of Lansing moved to their home here the last of last week. Mr. Canberg has been here quite a while looking after his business.

Messrs Rheinhold and Herman Zemke left Thursday for Germany, meeting their sister, Mrs. Fredia Cooper of South Carolina in New York, who accompanied them on their trip. They will visit a sister and brother, and also old friends there.

June 1, 1922.

Mrs. Lentz of Charlotte was in town for Decoration Day.

Mrs. Plateau of Battle Creek spent Tuesday at Mrs. Worden's.

Miss Celia Sprague spent the week-end in Indianapolis, the guest of her sister, and attended the auto races and Decoration Day.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ashdown and three children visited her brother, O. E. McLaughlin, and Dr. McLaughlin and family, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Jones and Mrs. Weltha Beach and son, Rex of Owosso spent Decoration Day with friends in town. They motored over with Mr. and Mrs. Orser and two children.

Mrs. Margaret Hawkins accompanied her mother, Mrs. Mary McWha to Chatham, Ontario last week, being gone from Wednesday morning until Saturday morning visiting her sister and family.

Mrs. Alice Tubbs' visitors Monday were: S. P. Kauffman of Chicago, Mrs. James Wheeler of Charlotte and granddaughter of Lansing, and Mrs. Percy Richardson and son of Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stiles and son, Charles motored to Battle Creek, Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welshon. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Earl of Kalamo.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Snell and children of Detroit were here over Sunday.

Roy Goodell spent several days with his wife and baby at the Bartig home.

Albert Green and family spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Green.

Mrs. Asa J. Brown has been visiting her son, Olin, in Saginaw the past week.

Harold Brown was home over Sunday from Plainwell where he has a position.

Mrs. Edith Biggs and daughter, Markhagene are visiting in Detroit this week.

Oliver Weiler and Charles Weiler were in Greenville, Monday, after seed potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith of Gibsonburg, Ohio spent last week at Chas. Weiler's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Barnes called at the home of T. C. Barnes in Nashville, Sunday.

Mrs. H. A. Christensen and sons, Earl and Charles visited old friends here, Monday.

Luben and Alton Barnes left last Thursday for a week's fishing at Houghton Lake.

Messrs Arthur and Ethan Kidder of Hastings were callers at William Hickey's, Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Seitz, wife and two lady friends of Battle Creek spent Decoration Day here.

Wesley B. Downing and family of Grand Ledge spent Sunday with Mrs. and Miss Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leshner of Hillsdale spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Roy Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reynolds and Walter Satterlee spent Sunday at the home of James Boyles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DePlanta of Grand Rapids spent a few days at the home of E. D. Barber.

Victor Hawkins, who had his leg broken, is improving and is as comfortable as can be expected.

Miss Myrta Tyler of Lansing will be home Sunday to help her father, E. Tyler celebrate his 85th birthday.

June 8, 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lentz spent Wednesday evening in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Murray and friends from Battle Creek ate ice cream at the Loveland Drug Store, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Roy Dies and wife of Charlotte were in town last evening.

Miss Dorothy Briggs is the proud owner of a fine new piano, delivered at their home this week.

J. Cooper Huffman and wife and Mrs. Skinner of Battle Creek visited Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. McLaughlin, Sunday. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Seitz accompanied them to Chester where they called on J. M. Cooper, who left Tuesday for Ann Arbor hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Kinney Sloat of Chicago was here to attend the Eighth Grade Graduation exercises. Her son, Harry, was a member of the class.

Bert Bisel has a new Ford Touring purchased of Barber Brothers.

Barber Brothers have placed an order for one of the large Radio Outfits and will have it to use in conjunction with their Moving Picture Show, also to give free concerts at the Ford Garage. The entertainment will be for the benefit of their patrons, as the set will be used both at the Garage and at the Theatre.