

sing for a short visit with her parents before returning to her school work at Ann Arbor, where she graduates from the University in June.

MARCH 29, 1923.

WARM SUGAR PARTY

Forty boys and girls of the Congregational Sunday School went with Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hill, where they were treated to warm sugar and pop corn and had a very enjoyable time visiting the sugar-bush. Mr. and Mrs. Hill proved themselves to be royal entertainers and surely won the hearts of the young people. Joseph Faust loaned his truck for the trip.

The members of the Edward Dwight Memorial Post, G. A. R. and the W. R. C. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown yesterday for a dinner party to help Mr. Brown celebrate his 79th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown of Plainwell sang several selections and Rev. Johnson gave a brief address.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown of Plainwell are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown.

Mrs. Mae Scarvell is home from Greenville for the spring vacation.

The Misses Mabelle and Celia Sprague are spending their vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Sprague.

Mrs. Harry Davis and two children of Jackson are spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Davis and family. Doctor Harry is in Detroit to a Dental Clinic.

Mrs. Moss expects to be at the office again Monday after several weeks' siege with the flu.

Dwight Davis spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis.

APRIL 5, 1923.

Mrs. Lizzie Lake and Miss Mary Seitz are in Grand Rapids today.

Gene Carey visited his son Donald and family in Calidonia recently.

The Camp Fire Girls will hold their regular council fire at the home of Mrs. Lena Baker this evening.

Mrs. James Wheeler of Charlotte spent Wednesday with her sister Mrs. Alice Tubbs.

Mr. W. P. Slout was in Charlotte Tuesday and will go again Friday to have dental work done.

Bordy Rowleader has rented the Chas. Brown farm for the coming year.

Lou and Roy Mathews have purchased the grocery stock at Gresham and the former will conduct that store.

Mrs. W. C. Alsover will entertain the Congregational Missionary society Friday p. m. April 6.

Mrs. John Rawson just returned from Kalkaska where she has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Dora Wells. She reports very deep snow in that part of the country.

Miss Mabel Sprague returned to her school work after a week of vacation.

Our schools opened Monday with a full attendance and new energy after a week's vacation.

Miss Celia Sprague who has been spending her vacation at home returned Sunday p. m. to Flint for her school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hammand are the proud parents of a son, born Thursday of last week. He will answer to the name of Merle E.

The town meeting called out a big crowd. The ladies showed their loyalty by going to the polls and voting for the right party.

A new up-to-date stock of Millinery now ready. At reasonable prices. Located in the North part of the Imes building. Mrs. Lillian Campbell.

APRIL 12, 1923.

EVENING STAR CHAPTER ELECTS OFFICERS

At the last Regular meeting of the Evening Star Chapter No. 342 the following officers were elected:

Lydia Wells—W. M.
E. D. Lake—W. P.
Zella Hammond—A. M.
Edith Alsover—Sec.
Jessie Bowman—Treas.
Ida Miles—Cond.
Iva Ward—A. C.

Installation for these with appointed officers will be held April 7, at 7:30 p. m.

The Martin barn, one of Vermontville's old landmarks, is being torn down and a garage will be built. James Clapper is doing the work.

Mrs. Nellie Fuller of Pontiac was called here last week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Alice Tubbs, and is helping care for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Sprague came at Mr. A. L. Barningham's Monday, after attending the funeral of his uncle the late Ernest Sprague of Charlotte.

A large crowd were in attendance at the Brotherhood meeting Monday night and the fine program was well received after which the crowd enjoyed ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Dwight Davis and son Donald have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis for the past two weeks but will soon go to Jackson where Mr. Davis has a position with the Consumers Power Co.