

by Irma Beck was especially entertaining. Those furnishing vocal or instrumental numbers were:- Ruth Mary Patterson, Virginia Powers, Irma Beck, Mary McLaughlin, Mary Todd, June Brown, Florence Neff, Margaret Powers, Velma Roth, Dorothy Faust, Neil McLaughlin, Beulah Barnum, Mary Margaret Hawkins and Gertrude Warner. A goodly number of parents and friends were present to enjoy the fine program given and noted the improvement the pupils are making under Miss Martin's instruction.

Today a big dinner was served to the Comrades and friends of C. F. Fuller and S. A. Fuller at the Fuller home on South Main Street. The following Comrades were present, their total ages for the nine bring 719 years.

By looking over the list of ladies present you can see for yourself that no words could describe the sumptuous dinner. The following were present: William Surine 80, H. H. Brown 80, D. Young 84, C. F. Fuller 82, S. A. Fuller 77, Asa Brown 77, Dr. Snell 77, Gene Olin 80, Nelson House 82, Etta Hallenbeck, Mrs. Jerry Diehl, Mrs. C. S. Snell, Miss Jennie Downing, Mrs. C. F. Fuller, Mrs. S. A. Fuller, Mattie Wagner, Norena Snell, Aggie Garanger, Fidelia Remalia, Mrs. Moses Cross, Mrs. H. H. Brown, Mrs. Gene Olin, Mrs. David Young, Miss Maud Morgan, Mrs. Asa Brown, Mr. Will Gehman, Mrs. Lewis King, Mrs. Rowley, Clara Surine, Zella Wells, Kitta Dodd, Mrs. Will Gehman, Mrs. Hannah Gehman, and Mrs.

MAY 29, 1924.

Mrs. Lura Niles and children expect to motor down from Grand Rapids Thursday afternoon for a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Downing.

Miss Altie Boyles left Saturday morning for a few days visit with Mrs. Pauline Wirt Brainard and husband of Lansing, and will also visit relatives in Grand Ledge before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stiles and son Chas. spent the week-end in Jackson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welshon.

Mr. D. Snoke is papering in the house, recently bought of Dana Hammond by Grant Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stiles and Charles motored to Jackson Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welshon and baby, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Morgan of Charlotte and Mrs. Agnes Loveland of Detroit, are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Loveland.

LeRoy Snell and son Charles came Thursday to spend Decoration Day with Dr. and Mrs. Snell.

Mrs. Zella Rogers and children were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dikeman Tuesday, a m.

JUNE 5, 1924.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner of Lansing spent Saturday at their farm and Saturday night and Sunday at O. B. Tubbs, returning by way of Charlotte to call on Mrs. Asa Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ackerson of Lansing, and lady friend of Iowa were callers at Mrs. A. G. Hawkins' Sunday afternoon.

There were many home comers for the Decoration day week-end. Some of them were L. W. Snell from Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones and daughter, Mrs. Weltha Beach and son Rex of Owosso, Miss Bodine of Greenville, Mrs. Flathan of Battle Creek, Homer Brown of Plainwell, Mrs. Lura Niles and children of Grand Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sprague and children of Lansing.

Laurence R. Tubbs has written his parents that his ship, the U. S. S. West Virginia, will leave New York about June 4 for Norfolk, Va., where they take on the Olympic players and take them to Cherbourg, France. The week's stay in this port will enable him to spend three days in Paris, later going to Algiers and Naples. Italy, from which place he can spend three days in Rome. They will take on the players again at Villa, France, and return to New York the first week in August.

Mrs. Honsberger of Charlotte, formerly of Vermontville, has gone to Jackson to make her home with her son, Glenn.

Mrs. Nellie Hull who has been visiting her son, Kennon and family in Bridgeport, Conn. for the past four months, expects to be in Vermontville on June, 10th.

Mrs. Minnie McEachran of Ann Arbor was in town the first of the week.

Joe Griswold of Grand Rapids was in town Decoration Day.

Mrs. Flatau of Battle Creek was here for Memorial Day, as a guest of Mrs. Glenn Randall.

Rev. Parsons motored down from Greenville last Thursday bringing Miss Emma Bodine who is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Young.

For Russell Youngs of Dallas, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Youngs. He is installing a radio for them as well as adding some electric wiring for porch lights, etc.

Dr. McLaughlin and family, Chas. Lamb and family and Chas. Warner and family all drove to Diamond Lake, on Sunday which is about one hundred miles north of Vermontville.