

CELEBRATES 25th ANNIVERSARY

The twenty fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Orin Tubbs was celebrated at their home Saturday April 25th by a gathering of their relatives. Those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Randall of Athens, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nidy and two little daughters of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Rishel and two children of Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shetenhelm and two children of Lake City and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Remalle of Lansing, and Elon Randall of Battle Creek. All remained over Sunday except Mr. and Mrs. Remalle. Some fine gifts were left as remembrances of a happy day.

CELEBRATES 13th. BIRTHDAY

Miss Mary McLaughlin entertained a few of her friends to a party on her thirteenth birthday Wednesday.

Those present were Mary Margaret Hawkins, Martha Zemke, Grace Faust, Dorothy Briggs, June Brown, Esther Warner, Irma and Nellie Vandeventer. Many nice remembrances of the day were received and all enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

A shower was given to Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Dean at the home of Arthur Crook, Wednesday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent and many useful gifts received.

Mrs. Dwight Davis and son, Donald of Jackson were Tuesday and Wednesday guests at the home of Walter Davis.

Attend church Mother's Day. If your mother is living wear a red flower, if she has passed on a white one.

Howard Hay went to Detroit Monday on business and Mrs. Hay visited her sister, Mrs. Roy Weaver in Bentonville he was gone.

N, MAY 7, 1925.

Christena Deubert was born in Germany, June 24, 1842, and came to America in early life, making her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

March 16, 1865 she was united in marriage to John George Seitz, who passed away April 30, 1922. They came to Michigan in 1881, and lived north of Vermontville until coming to this village in 1900 where she has since resided.

To this union nine children were born: Fredrick of San Francisco, California; George, who passed away in California twenty-six years ago; Charlie, who passed away in infancy; Mrs. Emma Hickey, Frank, and Mrs. Lizzie Lake, all of Vermontville; Eddie of Battle Creek; Mrs. Clara Kenworthy, of Ypsilanti; and Mrs. Mary Irvin of Vermontville.

In the passing of Mrs. Seitz Vermontville loses one of her purest, best, most helpful citizens. Her life has been spent for others. Her cheerful, sunny disposition won for her the love and respect of all. She was a friend to both old and young. Her flowers have cheered many sick rooms and brought comfort to friends and neighbors in hours of bereavement. "To know her was to love her."

The seven living children will always cherish fond memories of one of God's noblest of Mothers. Besides the children there are two grandsons, Keith and Donald Seitz and one grand daughter, Agnes Kenworthy.

Her earthly work is done. She was called home about four-thirty Thursday, April 30, 1925, out she still lives.

Funeral services were held from the home, Saturday, May 2nd at two p. m., conducted by Rev. H. H. Rogers, and burial made at Woodlawn cemetery.

The following teachers have been engaged for our schools for next year. Supt., Bernard L. Davis. Principal, Miss Eva Henson of Ashley, Miss Bessie B. Granger, Miss Kate Housler, Miss Frieda Surine, Miss Marjorie Jordan and Mrs. Emma Powers.

N, MAY 14, 1925.

Mrs. E. Sprague and daughters, Evelyn and Frances, of Charlotte returned from Florida last Saturday after spending a delightful winter at St. Petersburg and other points.

Both young ladies are greatly improved in health.

Miss Dorothy Loveland, senior in our High School, recently received a fine medal and a diploma of honor from the committee of international judges for the Proper Lighting contest in which several of our students entered last fall. Dorothy received first prize in our district contest at that time.

Roy R. Fuller, formerly of the class of 1925 of Olivet, is one of the candidates for an A. B. Degree in Economics at Leland Standford University, California. Immediately after graduation June 22nd, he will return to Detroit and enter business with his father, Mr. E. H. Fuller, who was a graduate of Vermontville High School in the class of 1899.

N, MAY 21, 1925.

Harold Fuller and family of Pontiac visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller from Sunday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Ernest Rawson and daughter Veva and little Frances, Mrs. Ernest Benedict and Mrs. Frank Beck were in Charlotte Tuesday morning.

John Burkett has been improving his residence by adding a porch on the west side and giving the house a couple coats of paint.

Fred Hopper spent last week at the family's Lansing home, Francis going over Wednesday night, both