

COMMENCEMENT

The Baccalaureate sermon by Rev. H. H. Rogers of the Congregational Church, Sunday evening, June 7, was full of good advice for the class of 1925 and should they live up to the ideals he set forth, they will be successful in life in the true sense.

JUNIOR SENIOR BANQUET

This is a week of festivities for the Seniors of V. H. S. Not the least of their joys was the banquet tendered them on Monday evening by the Juniors, who had spared no pains to make the event a success. The table was prettily decorated in the Senior colors, rose and gray, and the rose idea was carried out in the dainty hand-painted, place cards and souvenir booklets, containing the menu and program.

The three courses were served by four young ladies of the sophomore class; then followed the toasts, with Miss Granger presiding as toastmistress. Mr. Davis toasted and "roasted" the Seniors in fine shape, while Helen Benedict discussed the Juniors in her usual clever manner. Marie Rawson contributed a very pleasing violin solo, and the program closed with a brief farewell from Mr. Brotherton.

This event will long be remembered by the classes of 1925 and '26, and it is to be hoped the custom of an annual Junior-Senior banquet may be permanently restored as a part of the school life in Vermontville.

A Senior High School picnic is being held at Pine Lake today (Thursday), while the Junior High students will picnic at the same place Friday.

Mrs. Hannah Gehman left this morning for Canton, Ohio, where she will spend the summer with her son Edwin and other relatives.

Mrs. Nettie Caperly of Chicago visited her brother W. P. Slout and family, Saturday.

DELLA EITEL SINGS WITH NIGHTHAWKS

Last Saturday night Ralph Hall's Nighthawks furnished the program at W. R. E. O., with Miss Della Eitel as soloist. She sang "I Love A Little Cottage" and "Down in Alabama."

She received a telegram from Tuscaloosa, Alabama complimenting her as follows:

We appreciate your song Alabama.

Signed

J. G. Hackett.

Evidently Miss Eitel made a hit.

Little Catherine Hawkins, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hawkins, was taken suddenly ill last week Monday with appendicitis and on Tuesday Drs. Morris and McLaughlin performed an operation at Hall Memorial Hospital. The special nurse has returned to her home in Charlotte and Catherine is gaining nicely.
