

AUGUST 6, 1925.

Sunday guests at Will Sherrard's were Mr. and Mrs. Nellross and Mrs. Edie Beck of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Don Andrews of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Townsend and children of Florida and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Brady of the Hunt Stock Company, the latter remaining for the entire week.

The families from Vermontville, Nashville, Fennville and Colon met at Gull Lake last week for their annual picnic. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lake and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Wells driving from there to Wall Lake to spend a night and day with Glenn Lake and family who are spending the week there.

The following from here attended the funeral services of Mrs. Orlie Deuel at Sunfield Tuesday afternoon; Mrs. Elizabeth Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Deuel, Mrs. Stella Grinnell, Mrs. Ernest Rawson, Miss Margaret Schram, Mrs. M. L. Bilderbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sherrard, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Powers and Ethel Powers.

Rev. H. H. Rogers and family leave Friday for Grand Haven. Will also visit his people in Otsego and will visit in Grand Rapids. They expect to be gone three weeks. Will be home for Sunday August 30, when services will be resumed.

abt. Tit. dic. tha. Ret. D. con. Acid: d

LeRoy Snell and children returned to their home in Detroit Sunday. Miss Norena Snell accompanied them as far as Jackson where she was the guest of Miss Grace Rouch.

Mrs. Welshon of Chicago, who is spending some time at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Kellar in Kalamo, visited at the Stiles home Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. Hunt and wife formerly of Vermontville are expected here to stay over night Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller and see old friends Pioneer Day, on their way to their cottage at Frankfort.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred P. Sprague are at their home here since last Thursday. Dr. Sackett bringing them here. Mr. Sprague is in very poor health, but his friends are hoping with a good rest, he will improve rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bale of Fennville visited relatives and friends here Saturday and until Sunday afternoon when they returned home with E. D. Lake and Ned Sprague who are working in Fennville for a couple of weeks on a carpenter job.

AUGUST 20, 1925.

Miss Antoinette Pope a native of Kalamo and member of the class of 1900 V. H. S. was the guest of Mrs. Edith Biggs on her return trip after a visit in New York from Monday until Wednesday, Mrs. Biggs taking her to Battle Creek where she took the train for South Haven to visit her aunt Mrs. John McCarty before returning home. She is a teacher in the schools at Oakland, Calif.

Supt. Clay was in town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Clay will settle next week in the rooms in the Martin house occupied by Supt. Davis and family.

Neil McLaughlin, Frances Hopper of Lansing and Miss Millicent Lamb of East Lansing called at the H. B. Johnson home at Mt. Pleasant, Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Cone are home again from their stay at Bronson hospital, Kalamazoo where the former was operated on, and a visit with their parents at Stockbridge.

Mrs. C. E. Dickey returned Tuesday from an extended visit with her people at Binghamton, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Dickey are getting their home settled in the Bowser house on West First street.

AUGUST 13, 1925.

Some of the Charlotte people who were here for Pioneer Day were: Mr. and Mrs. James McCotter, Mrs. Prudence Holden, Miss Marie DeGraff, Mr. and Mrs. Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lake and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Sherman, Mrs. Carrie Sherman, Mr. Nelson Smith, Miss Louise Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clever and family, Mrs. Arby Clever, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Prince, Mrs. Mary F. Youngblood, Mrs. Gertrude Prindle, Mrs. Elizabeth Lentz, Mrs. Kate Ward, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. George Harrington, Mrs. George Gillingham, Miss Edith Collins, Miss Cynthia Green and Alex Rasey.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crook and Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Dean attended the Crook family reunion held Friday at Thornapple Lake. About 63 were present and 17 families represented, from Detroit, Flint, Port Huron, Rockwood, Charlotte, Hastings, and Vermontville.

Mrs. Neva Campbell of Lansing met with a very painful accident, while auto riding with a neighbor to the city, when their car was run into by a large car and completely demolished. Mrs. Campbell was unconscious for some time. She was terribly bruised, but is recovering. The lady who she was with had her hip crushed and was probably injured for life.

Charles Fuller of New York City spent from Saturday until Monday morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuller. Harold, wife a son Donald of Pontiac were weekend guests and Roy of Grand Rapids spent Sunday with them, going from here to join his family at their cottage at Roscommon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warren and children from Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Warren, Bert Warren and John of Galesburg and Charles Warren and George Loomis of Grand Rapids were Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Snell. The latter are spending part of their vacation here.