

CLYDE B. HAWKINS

Clyde B. Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asahel G. Hawkins, was born in Vermontville, Mich., February 3, 1875, where he has always resided.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Margaret Hall January 9, 1918. Two children were born Brunelda McWha, and Clyde W., who passed away October 6, 1924.

He had been in business about thirty years, and was well-known and had many friends who will miss him.

He had been failing in health for some months, but the end came very suddenly about five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, September 16, 1930.

Besides his daughter, he leaves one sister Mrs. Anna Renth of Chicago, and three brothers George B., L. B., and Elmer J., all of Lansing, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the residence at two o'clock Thursday, conducted by Rev. C. H. Phillips, and burial was beside his little son in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Jewell of Omaha, Nebraska, are guests of the Stevens and Lent families and his sister Mrs. E. S. Harrold of Atlanta, Ga., who has been here for three weeks waiting their coming. They leave tomorrow morning, while Mrs. Harrold remains for a longer visit. It has been many years since Mr. Jewell, a former resident, has visited his old home town. He assisted his father in the post office and book store about fifty years ago. He has been a very successful and influential business man and is now taking time to really enjoy life.

Mrs. Gertrude Mate and Barbara, of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gutches, Mrs. E. E. Loveland and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loveland attended the Loveland family reunion at the home of Frank Kelley in Carmel township, Sunday. Four generations were represented in Mrs. E. E. Loveland, L. W. Loveland, Mrs. Mate and Barbara. There were thirty-seven present and the day much enjoyed.

Mrs. F. M. Shetehelm of East Vermontville was operated on at Community hospital, Charlotte, by Dr. Randall of Lansing, Tuesday a. m. She is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alsover were in Grand Rapids over the week end and with Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Alsover and Phil motored to Chicago where Phil has entered Northwestern University.

Mrs. Asa Brown came home Friday afternoon after a week's stay in Lansing where she had another operation on her left eye, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Semans motoring for her and bringing her home. She will return in four weeks to have her eyes tested for reading glasses.

September 25, 1930

WILLIAM HICKEY

William Hickey, son of Daniel and Bridget Tobin Hickey, was born in Holly, Michigan, June 18, 1857, and came with his family to Vermontville township when he was two years of age, where he has since resided.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Emma Seitz, October 3, 1900. Mr. Hickey was one of the best known men of this section, as for years he was a stock buyer which took him to the homes of many for miles around.

He was of a very genial disposition and always made friends wherever he went.

Mr. Hickey has always been held in high esteem and will be missed not only in the home but his pleasant smile and friendly greetings will be missed by all who knew him.

He passed away about six o'clock, Tuesday evening, September 16, 1930, after years of poor health, an attack of pneumonia hastening the end.

Besides his wife, he leaves two brothers Richard Hickey of Vermontville, and Daniel Hickey of Nashville and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at nine o'clock at the Hastings Catholic Church, Rev. Father B. N. Geller conducting the service, and burial was made in the Catholic cemetery at Hastings.

A good man has gone to his reward.

LOVELAND REUNION

The third reunion of the Loveland family occurred in a pretty grove near the home of Frank and Bessie (Loveland) Kelly in Carmel, Sunday, September 14th.

A. W. Loveland presided as Pres. at a brief business session, and was re-elected for another year. All members were present save E. J. Loveland and wife of Vermontville and Miss Vera of Battle Creek; also Gene and Helen (Loveland) Murray and little daughter of Battle Creek, who were unavoidably detained.

The next meeting will be held with Leon Loveland and family in September 1931.

Mrs. Harry Hammond is making a remarkable recovery and was removed to her home, Wednesday noon.

Mary McLaughlin and Frances Lent went to Albion last week Tuesday to enter college. They are nicely situated in Susanna Wesley Hall.

Gerald Hammond, with the help of Marshal Hills, brought down some of the dangerous limbs in the big trees, the first of the week.

Mrs. Clayton Gunn of Lowell, Mich. is visiting her sister Mrs. Davis at the home of her son Dr. G. J. Davis.

Mrs. Macus A. Keith of Morgantown, W. V. returned home Friday after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Lena Todd.

Mrs. Dorothy Gutches had her tonsils removed at Hall hospital, Tuesday, and remained a few days to recuperate.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wilson motored to Ann Arbor, Monday taking Barbara Wilson and Neil McLaughlin, who enter the University this week.

Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Weiler and sons, Mrs. Barningham and Catherine motored to Marshall Sunday evening to see the illuminated fountain.

MRS. WILLIAM HUNTER

Mary A. Smith was born at Dover, Lenawee County, Michigan, March 18, 1844, and passed to her reward at her home in Kalamo township, September 18, 1930. She was fifth of the ten children of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, only one of whom is now living. She lived in the vicinity of her birth until womanhood, when on March 18, 1868, she was married to William Hunter. To this union were born five children: Lydia, now Mrs. Clinton Wells; Edith, Mrs. William C. Alsover; Avie Ione; Harry Hunter and Agnes, Mrs. Earl Howe, also one granddaughter, Nellie Wells, now Mrs. Will Barningham, all of whom survive, except Avie Ione, who died at the age of five years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Surine and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tubbs spent the week end in Kalamazoo where they attended the wedding of Miss Leila Chase and Merle Surine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Childs moved a few household goods to Ann Arbor Monday, and are located at 540 Packard Street. Mr. Childs will take work at the University.

Wichita, Kans., 3400-3600 E.
800-1200 W.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., 41-53
Wilmington, Del., 1-1421
Winchendon, Mass.
Winchester, Mass., 1-49
Woburn Mass., 2-20
Woodbury, N.J., 66