

MRS. CYRUS PRINCE

Evaline Deuel, daughter of Milo and Mary Deuel, was born in Sunfield township, May 20, 1863. She lived her girlhood life in and near Vermontville and on February 5, 1884, was married to Cyrus E. Prince, in Nashville. Four children came to bless this home: James H. of Detroit, Florence Cox of Charlotte, Eseelee Green of Howell, and Ida Cottrell of Kalamo. Mrs. Prince was a faithful, frugal helpmate, a kind, loving mother, giving of her best to her home and family. In early life she united with the church, and here also was a tireless worker as long as health permitted. At the age of three, the deceased lost her mother and since then a brother, Carlton Deuel, and a sister Hattie.

Her entire life of 70 years, 4 months and 17 days, Mrs. Prince has lived in Eaton county, the last 21 years in Charlotte, and here on Saturday morning she passed away, leaving to mourn her husband, the four children, four grandchildren, three half brothers, Jerome, Milo, and Marion Deuel, and three half sisters, Mary Prescott, Sarah Seitz, and Jennie Porter, besides a wide circle of friends and neighbors.

The funeral services were held Monday, October 9th, from the home with Rev. Fields of the Baptist church officiating. Interment at Maple Hill.

Those attending the funeral from out of town were Mr. Bert Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Newark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb, Mr. and Erwin Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Phillips, Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Prince, Mrs. Inez Walsh, Mrs. Mark Doty, Grand Ledge; Mrs. Libbie Downing, Grand Rapids; Mrs. Milton Lent, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Della Welshon, Jerome Deuel, Burdette Wright, George Wright, Mrs. Mabel Dow, Mrs. Ella Bottomley and Mrs. Lee Miles, Vermontville; Mr. and Mrs. Clive Willis, Bellevue; Mrs. Hinckley, Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller, Jackson; Mrs. Lyman Vandercook, Mrs. John Haggman, Mrs. Chas. Monroe, Mrs. Wm. Burdick, and Mrs. Robert Chapel of Howell.

ORSON SHELDON PASSED AWAY TUESDAY NIGHT

Orson Sheldon of Sunfield township suffered a stroke early Tuesday and passed away that evening. He would have been 86 had he lived until January. Mr. Sheldon's funeral will be held at 2:30 on Friday—New Year's day—the 60th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon's marriage.

CRUE—RAWSON NUPTIALS

Sixty friends witnessed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. John H. Crue, son of Mrs. Dasie Crue of this city, and Miss Lillian Marie Rawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Rawson of Vermontville, at the Methodist church in that village on Saturday evening, June eighth, at eight-thirty o'clock.

As Mrs. Mable Clark played the wedding march, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, and the young people plighted their troth before the altar which was banked with a beautiful disposal of lavender iris and syringa. Rev. Phillips, pastor of the church, read the impressive double ring ceremony.

Attending the bride were her cousin, Miss Ruth Lovell, and Miss Marion Peirce of Hastings, and Mr. Walter Lewis of this city was the best man. The bride was charming in a gown of white satin faced crepe trimmed with lace, a lovely wedding veil completing her costume. Her shower bouquet was of white roses. Miss Peirce wore a frock of rose while Miss Lovell's gown was yellow and both carried bouquets of pink roses.

Especially attractive were the decorations of lavender iris and white syringa which were very effectively arranged, and the floor lights were also shaded with lavender.

A reception was afterward held in the chapel where congratulations were extended Mr. and Mrs. Crue. Mrs. O. E. McLaughlin and Mrs. Keith Barber prepared and served a lovely wedding collation in the room above the chapel, dainty cards marking each guests place. Bouquets of lavender iris were used on the tables which were very attractive.

The bride and groom mingled with the guests until late in the evening when they made a safe ~~de- and are now on their~~ honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in this city, where he is a member of the Ironside Shoe Co. Both Mr. and Mrs. Crue have many friends in Hastings who wish them every happiness and success.

—Hastings Banner

MRS. HELEN M. SQUIRES BRINGS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Helen M. Squires of Vermontville village has brought a divorce action against George T. Squires, to whom she was married at Fulton, N. Y., in 1915. The reiterated charge is that on numerous occasions defendant struck, beat, bruised and ill treated plaintiff, finally ordering her to take the three children, 16, 14 and 12 years old, and leave the home they are purchasing on contract. Defendant is an employe of the Lansing Drop Forge company. An injunction is asked to enjoin him from entering the premises or interfering with the plaintiff and the children and their occupancy of the home.

SHOWER HONORS MRS. M. C. LAMB

206

Mary McLaughlin and Barbara Wilson were hostesses at a delightful 1:30 o'clock luncheon at the home of the former Saturday when nine girls gathered to honor the newly married Thelma Zantop Lamb.

Unique was the Japanese theme used for the luncheon when at the appointed hour the guests were ushered into the luncheon room, lighted with Japanese lanterns and lamps, the walls hung with oriental drapes, the customary cushions for chairs, the incense, menu cards with Japanese printing and every detail fashioned to lend the atmosphere of Japan even to the gowns of the two hostesses.

After the luncheon the guests retired to the living room where tables were set up and pit, fantan, and "bug" were played.

Guests included, beside Mrs. Lamb, Margaret Thompson, Dorothy Hitt, Lorraine McLaughlin, Kate Lozo, Wilma Bell Kamiensky, Grace Faust, Frances MacDonald of Chicago, and Hilda French.

Mrs. Lamb received many lovely gifts and at the hour of six the group disbanded with appreciations to the Misses McLaughlin and Wilson for the enjoyable afternoon.

KELLY SCHOOL REUNION

The Kelly school reunion will be held Sunday, July 8, at Bennett Park, Charlotte. Pollock dinner. All former students and teachers are urged to be present.

Try Our For Sale Column.

McLAUGHLIN—MARKLE

Leighton B. McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McLaughlin of this city and Miss Gwendolyn Markle of St. Clair were married Monday in Detroit and were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John McFarlin (nee Merle Davis) Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin are already at their home at 138 Glendale Ave., Highland Park, Michigan. Mr. McLaughlin is a graduate of Olivet college, where he met his bride, and has been in Detroit since Oct. 1924 as a certified public accountant with the same firm during this period. A fine reception was given them by their Detroit friends Thursday evening at their new home. Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin are spending today (Friday) with his parents. Charlotte Republican—Tribune