

CHARLOTTE. Feb. 28—Carl Theron (Jack) Hawes, 52, died Wednesday at the residence, 901 S. Main st., after a long illness. He was born Aug. 21, 1899, in Parma township, Jackson county, the son of Arthur and Myrtle Benn Hawes, and had been a Charlotte resident for 30 years. He was foreman of the machine shop at the Wilcox-Gay factory here. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Rozma Seachrist; the mother, Mrs. Myrtle Hawes of Vermontville; two brothers, Harry of Brookfield and Ray of Oakland, Cal., and a sister, Mrs. Lloyd Faust of Vermontville. Services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday from the Pray funeral home. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

(Special to The State) William Judd OLIVET. Feb. 18—Funeral services for William Judd, 71, farmer of this vicinity, brother of Homer Judd, village president, were to be held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Burkhead funeral chapel here. Mr. Judd dropped dead at the home Friday, following a continued heart ailment. Rev. Arle Binkhorst to officiate and burial to be in the Oak Ridge cemetery. Marriages. Survivors are the widow, formerly Maud Bennett; a daughter and two sons, Mrs. Ray Schanzbaker and Mito, Battle Creek, and Everett, Kalamazoo; a sister, Mrs. Lester Cleveland, Battle Creek, and the brother, Homer. He was born in Battle Creek.

CHARLOTTE. Mrs. Leo Nora Sackett, 94, widow of Dr. C. S. Sackett, died New Year's day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Burkett, at Oak Park, Ill. She was born May 7, 1857, in Litchfield, the daughter of Horace and Emaline White Canfield. Services will be held at 2 Friday at the Pray funeral home. Burial will be in Maple Hill cemetery.

WHITE CLOUD. Elizabeth Rhinesmith, 88, died Wednesday at her home.

Regret Death Of Jas. M. Metcalfe

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon for James Morris Metcalfe, a well known and successful farmer of the Beachburg district, who died Wednesday in a local hospital at the age of 81.

Service will be held in St. Andrew's United church, Beachburg, of which he had been a member for many years, and burial will be in Beachburg Union cemetery. Service will be at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. Metcalfe was born near Beachburg on October 31, 1870, son of the late Henry Metcalfe and his wife, Jane McLean. He farmed all his life in "the Glen" about a mile from the village and was a capable and industrious farmer.

He was twice married, first to Betta Bradley of Beachburg, who died about 16 years ago, and later to Mrs. Rose Huntingdon, who also predeceased him.

He had no children. His only brother and close companion for many years, William Metcalfe, died last May and his only immediate survivor is his sister, Mrs. James Smith of Pembroke, while there are a number of nephews and nieces.

Roy A. Hawkins MASON. Jan. 3—Roy A. Hawkins, 68, of N. East st., died Wednesday at the Mason hospital. Survivors include the widow, Elizabeth; three daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Parisian of Jackson, and Carolyn and Shelia at home; four sons, Raymond in the U. S. army, and Chester, Gerald and Russell at home; one brother, Lewis Hawkins of Leslie, and one sister, Mrs. Marcella Herrick of Mason. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. from the Jewett funeral home. Burial will be in Maple Grove cemetery.

Cora A. Church Mrs. Cora A. Church, 72, of 219 Clifford st., died Saturday evening at the home. Mrs. Church had been a resident of Lansing for the past 17 years, coming here from Vermontville. She was a member of the North Street Church of the Nazarene. Surviving besides her husband, are one son, George F. of Lansing, and a daughter, Mrs. Opal Zemke of Vermontville; five grandchildren; three brothers, Earl Sprague of Lansing, Oliver Sprague of Jackson, and Floyd Sprague of Sunfield; a sister, Mrs. Elise Franks of Mulliken. Funeral services will be held at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel at 11.30 Tuesday morning. Rev. Herbert Thomas of the North Street Church of the Nazarene will officiate with interment in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers will be Ralph Cornell, Perry Daniels, Clarence Bruch, Hector Hawkins, Asa Daniels and William Damon.

Mrs. Louise Marie Frank Funeral services for Mrs. Louise Marie Frank of 300 S. Alger st., who died Tuesday evening at the residence, will be held at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel at 11 o'clock Friday morning. Rev. Thomas Myers will officiate. Interment will be at Deepdale cemetery. Pallbearers will be Leslie E. Frank, Victor A. Frank, Eric W. Vetter, Otis J. Williams, Curtis E. Reamer and William P. Blundy.

W. O. Briggs Dies at 74

Was Auto Body Maker and Tigers' Owner

Detroit—(AP)—Walter O. Briggs, 74, industrialist and owner of the Detroit Tigers of the American Baseball league, died Thursday at his winter home in Miami, Fla.

He was reported to have been stricken Sunday with a kidney infection.

Briggs was head of the Briggs Manufacturing Co., maker of automobile car bodies.

Briggs, known as one of the giants of the auto industry, came up from the ranks. He first was a body trimmer. Then he became owner of his own company.