

Baptist church of Grand Rapids and of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Heering was a lifelong member of the Butterworth Hospital Nurses association.

She took great delight in visiting here—her old home town—and her cousin Mrs. Almeda Hopper, also her sister-in-law Mrs. Louise Gunn at Kelly. She attended the Sunshine Party for several years. Her last visit here was August 14th when she came for the D. U. V. first anniversary party.

Those surviving, besides her husband, Henry, are two sons, Dr. Roger E. Heering of Columbus, O., and Paul O. Herring of Grand Rapids; a daughter, Mrs. J. T. Miller, (Josephine) of Dayton, Ohio; a sister, Dora Paul, of St. Cloud, Florida and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Heering suffered a stroke on Tuesday, Dec. 7. Her son, Dr. R. E. Herring and daughter, Mrs. Miller flew to St. Cloud and remained to care for her. Two other strokes followed and she passed away Friday, Dec. 17. Funeral services were held there, largely attended, and her body was brought here Wednesday.

Services were held at the Ward Funeral Home at 3:00 p. m., Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. Burial was at Woodlawn cemetery.

The casket bearers were: Norman Lilley, Alf. Holm, Wm. Seymour, Ken. Blackman, Fred Lee, and Harold Barnhill.

H. C. Fox, Hastings Ex-Treasurer, Dies

Hastings—Harley C. Fox, 70 Hastings city treasurer from 1940 to 1942 and from 1944 to 1946, died Monday at the home of his son, William of Kalamazoo, after a long illness.

He and Mrs. Fox had been residing at the son's home the last seven weeks.

He was a member of the First Methodist church and its board of trustees and IOOF lodge No. 58.

Surviving are his wife, Blanche; a sister, Mrs. Mary Warner of Hastings, two grandchildren, the son and brother.

Services will be held at 4 Wednesday at the Leonard chapel.

Believed Victim of Heart Attack

Diplomat Suffering from Hours in Cold

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Former Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles was found in a semiconscious condition in a suburban Maryland countryside near his estate early Sunday.

Circumstances indicated that he may have suffered a heart attack on an after-midnight walk in sub-freezing weather.

His condition was described as serious because of exposure.

HIS FINGERS and toes were frozen and there is the possibility some may have to be amputated. Dr. George R. Huffman, his physician, said.

Huffman reported that a fur coat Welles was wearing at the time he was found undoubtedly saved him from freezing to death. He was hatless.

Mrs. Welles and his son, Arnold, were at his bedside.

FRIENDS SAID that Welles, now 56, suffered chronically from insomnia and that during the last week he had been deeply upset by the tragic death in New York Dec. 20 of his close friend, Laurence Duggan.

Duggan was killed in a fall or leap from his 16th-floor office window.

He was a former State Department official and protege of Welles.

When, after his death, Duggan's name was linked with the current probe into Communist spy activi-
