

Fumes Kill Man In Parked Auto

Police reported that Byron G. Root, 26, of 1421½ Turner st., was found dead in his car in North Lansing, the victim of accidental carbon monoxide poisoning. Thursday morning.

Officers said Mr. Root apparently fell asleep in the car while the motor was running.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wing of 803 Call st., reported seeing the car parked at the curb near their home. When investigators arrived, they found the victim dead.

The left front vent window of the car was partly opened and the radio was turned on. The motor was not running when officers arrived.

Mr. Root was employed by the Angell Construction company and was a World War II veteran.

Surviving are the widow, Dorene; two sons, Larry Eugene and Byron George Jr.; the father, Melvin Root, of Springport, and the mother, Mrs. Perl Blue of Flint; five brothers, Harold of Albion, Durwood of Flint, Robert of Millett, and Howard and Reo of Lansing, and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Sheplar of Lansing and Mrs. Lillian VanSickle of Bellevue.

The body was removed to the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home to await funeral arrangements.

Carson D. Moyer
SUNFIELD, Oct. 22.—Carson D. Moyer, 79, died unexpectedly Saturday morning at a Lansing hospital. Mr. Moyer resided five miles south of Mulliken on what has been known as the Moyer Homestead 114 years. He was born July 12, 1870, the son of Cleon and Amanda Moyer and had lived on this farm his entire life. He was married Nov. 1, 1896, to Etta Bishop of Sunfield township who survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. June Peters of Charlevoix and Mrs. Julia Shaw of Middleville; one grandson, Armond Peters; several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mapes funeral home, Sunfield. Rev. Ted Gandy officiating, with burial in Maple Hill cemetery, Charlotte. Pallbearers will be J. W. Welch, Kendall Dow, Jack Wilcox, Derwood Dow, Raymond Wilcox and P. J. Welch, all nephews.

State Funerals

(Special to The State Journal)
John K. Burkett
VERMONTVILLE, Aug. 29.—Funeral services for John K. Burkett, 82, former local resident, will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. from the Ward funeral home here, with burial in Kalamo cemetery. Mr. Burkett died Monday night in an Eaton Rapids convalescent home where he had been a patient for the past five weeks. He was born Aug. 19, 1869, in Miami county, Ohio, and came to Michigan from Van Wert, O., 42 years ago. For a period of 20 years he was a blacksmith in Vermontville, retiring eight years ago because of ill health. He had been residing with his son, Roy, since then. His wife, Mrs. Burkett, died in 1937.

Arthur D. McQuillen

AL SKETCH

YES SENATE
COUZENS,

January 3, 1937,

ario, Canada, and

and came to 1

98 and they have an Mr. Couzens,

ed with the M y-five. Followin

In 1903 he, wi

secretary and

ly not only pro

is resigned as v

several years, at y severed. In missioner of D

1. In November

lex J. Groesbeck

resignation of

elected for the

2,718, and for t

5. On September

majority of 305,

bring January 3

rn in that city

rg; was educate

of Michigan;

honorary LL

or and publish

ously until his

ed the late W

the life and ti

ublic service an

charter commiss

h put Zachariah

n in 1928 was cl

12 to 1928 was a

gan; married Ha

Arthur, Jr., Bart

3, 1929, and f

301. He was re

nee for presiden

Carson D. Moyer Dies Unexpectedly

Carson D. Moyer 79, died unexpectedly Saturday noon in a Lansing hospital. Mr. Moyer resided on a farm five miles south of Mulliken where he spent his entire life. The farm has been the Moyer homestead for the past 114 years.

Mr. Moyer married Etta Bishop November 1, 1896. Mrs. Moyer survives. Other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. June Peters of Charlevoix, and Mrs. Julia Shaw of Middleville, one grandson, several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, October 23, from the Mapes Funeral Home in Sunfield and burial was made in Maplehill Cemetery in Charlotte. Rev. Ted Gandy officiated. Bearers were J. W. Welch, P. J. Welch, Raymond Wilcox, Durwood Dow, Elwin Dow, and Jack Wilcox.

Carson D. Moyer Dies at 79

Prominent Farmer Born on the Roxand Farm Where he Lived All His Life

Carson D. Moyer, 79, died unexpectedly Saturday morning, shortly after admission in a Lansing hospital. Mr. Moyer resided five miles south of Mulliken on what is known as the Moyer Homestead 14 years. He was born July 12, 1870, the son of Cleon and Amanda Moyer, and had lived on this farm his entire life. He was married Nov. 1, 1896, to Etta Bishop, of Sunfield township, who survives. Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. June Peters of Charlevoix and Mrs. Julia Shaw of Middleville; one grandson, Armond Peters; several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mapes funeral home, Sunfield, Rev. Ted Gandy officiating with burial in Maple Hill cemetery. Pallbearers were Kendall Dow, Jack Wilcox, Derwood Dow, Raymond Wilcox, and P. J. Welch, all nephews.