

T MRS. BILLIE J. HETHORN

Mrs. Hethorn, 21, of Canal rd., Dimondale, was fatally hurt when the car driven by Robert W. Peters, 19, of 1125 W. Ottawa st., plunged off DeWitt rd., north of Sheridan rd., and hit a cement culvert, utility pole and tree at 4:45 o'clock Saturday morning.

Woman Killed, 3 Hurt in Crash

LANSING, May 19—Mrs. Billie Hethorn, 21, of Dimondale, was killed and three other persons injured in an automobile accident northwest of the city early Saturday.

Mrs. Hethorn, who lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Swan, died of internal injuries and a broken neck, according to state police.

Driver of the car was Robert W. Peters, 19, of 1125 W. Ottawa, Lansing, who suffered cuts and bruises about the head. Others hurt were: James Olsen, 20, and Pauline Pappas, 19, both of Lansing.

State police said Peters' car failed to negotiate a curve, hitting a cement culvert, utility pole and tree.

CHARLOTTE—Mrs. Ruth Fox, 56, of Vermontville township died Thursday in St. Lawrence hospital, Lansing. Services will be held at 2 Saturday in Burkhead chapel. Burial in Maple Hill cemetery.

(Special to The State Journal)

Mrs. Ruth Fox

CHARLOTTE, May 11—Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Fox, 56, of Vermontville township, who died Thursday at St. Lawrence hospital, will be at 2 o'clock Saturday at the Burkhead chapel. Born Dec. 9, 1894, in Brookfield township, the daughter of Earl and Senora Goldsmith Fox, she married Clyde Fox on Oct. 30, 1919. She was a member of the Vermontville Grange, and was chairman of the board of the Eaton County Home Economics Extension council. Surviving are the husband; three sons, Amos of Lansing, John of Vermontville, Clyde, Jr., of Charlotte; two grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Lobdell of Lansing and Mrs. Ray Henstock of Dearborn.

TIVE

IVE

have t hat to to co

Mrs. Ruth Fox Dies In Lansing Hospital

Was A Correspondent For
The Echo Several Years

Br Mrs. Ruth G. Fox, 56, of R. 1 Vermontville died suddenly Thursday morning in a Lansing hospital where she had been a patient for four days.

To Mrs. Fox had been a faithful correspondent for this paper, writing the Brick news for several years. She was a member of the Congregational church, Vermontville Womans club, at the time of her death was president of the Board of Home Economics Extension Council of Eaton County and was one of the organizers of the Vermontville Grange recently organized.

Bel Ruth Fox was born in Brookfield township December 9, 1894, the oldest daughter of the late Earl B. and Senora (Goldsmith) Fox. She was united in marriage to Clyde A. Fox October 30, 1919.

To Besides the husband Clyde A. she is survived by three sons, Amos of Lansing, John of Vermontville and Clyde A. Jr., of Charlotte; two grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Grace Lobdell of Lansing and Mrs. Ray Henstock of Dearborn.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Burkhead Chapel in Charlotte. Rev. D. D. Nagle of the Vermontville Congregational church officiating. Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery.

Texas city.....	1,319
Albion city.....	8,324
Marshall city.....	5,019
Total.....	33,193
	29,252