25 YEARS AGO

Mrs. Adelia D. Pickens, the oldest resident of Sunfield township and perhaps of the state died at her home near the Bismark church Friday, after a week's illness, at the age of 102 years, eight months and 15 days. Mrs. Pickens celebrated her 100th birthday in 1923 and since that time has received considerable publicity in the daily and weekly papers. She was very active for one of her years and attended to her household work up until her illness. She told of some very interesting things that happened during her life time, the most thrilling being incidents of the so called "Canadian War" when she was 14 years of age.
