

Everett Peck Dies in Iowa

Everett Peck, 65, a former Eaton county sheriff, and for the past seven years of Cotter, Iowa, died of a heart attack Tuesday night at a hospital in Iowa City, Iowa. Mr. Peck served as sheriff of Eaton county for ten years from 1947 to 1956. He was undersheriff 12 years prior to being sheriff. He was a World War I veteran and a member of the Charlotte county may in and Eaton Rapids American Legion posts. Surviving are the wife, Anita; a son, Richard, at home and a daughter, Mrs. Winfield (Susan) Pardee of Belleville, Illinois. Funeral services will be held Friday at the Stacy Funeral Home in Columbus Junction, Iowa.

be mailed to such person. and shall recite therein that the persons to whom the persons whose names and addresses appear upon the particular spe

Mrs. Juliette Gehman

Funeral services for Mrs. Juliette Gehman, 89, lifelong a jurisdictional de Vermontville area resident, were given by publicat held at the Clark Memorial Chapel in Grand Rapids with notice said board burial in Grand Haven. Mrs. Gehman passed away unexpectedly Dec. 31. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Miriam Ross of Wareham, Mass.; a stepson, Earl Gehman of Vermontville; and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Eliza Emery of Nashville and seven grandchildren.

Ernest C. Woodlief

Woodlief, 69, of 910 Lansing, died whether the same is necessary and that the Eaton the said board shall find by a majority Hospital said drain is not necessary and conducive. He had shall file with the commissioner an order dis. resident said drain shall be entertained within 1 year a retired majority vote, as aforesaid, shall find the said dis. conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, effect and file the same with the said commissioner.

construction of the proposed drain is necessary for the protection of the public health in 1 or more cities, villages and townships, the order shall set forth such determination giving the names of such municipality or municipalities receiving benefit for health; and in that case, the board may determine that the whole cost thereof, except that which may be apportioned for benefits to highways, shall be apportioned to such townships, cities and villages at large, and it shall not be necessary, in any subsequent order or notice to describe or refer to any

HECTOR B. HAWKINS

May 4, 1887

October 25, 1963

Services at

The Colonial Chapel
Estes-Leadley Funeral Home

Monday, October 28, 1963 — 1:00 P. M.

Clergyman

Rev. Robert Buck

Miss Clara W. Besch, Organist

Mrs. Marjorie Snyder, Singer

Interment

EVERGREEN CEMETERY

Bradley Duckworth

John Duckworth

Elwood Hawkins

David Snell

Rev. Dwight Conrad

Lawrence Hawkins

—Bearers

it shall be conclusive proof that son. Set to be mailed by the terms day at Hill shall not constitute with graveside shall have been m. at Riverside notification Mount Pleasant. in said the

Mrs. Esther I. Briggs

Mrs. Esther Irene Briggs, 84, R. 2, Vermontville, lifelong resident of Barry and Eaton counties, died Monday, January 6, in Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital, where she had been a patient a week. She was born at Hickory Corners, Barry county, and was married June 12, 1902, in Kalamazoo to Fred Briggs, who survives her, along with a son, Louis, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Austin (Ruth) Janousek of R. 2, Vermontville, five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Services were held Wednesday at the Vogt Funeral Home. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.