

32

tration shall be dealer and the the dealer withi vendor to use di in addition ther such dealer's plk of sale of the m

257.801 Moto

Sec. 801. T of registering a except the fees vehicles and tra sections 475.1 t otherwise provic

Motor veh:

(a) For ea of weight therec.,

Trailer coaches; habitations not exempt from real propertv. taxes.

(b) For each trailer coach attached to a passenger car, e weight thereof: F of the Public Acts Compiled Laws of under Act No. 206 inclusive, of the Cc and whether or not taxes;

Road tractor,

(c) For each clusively in connec portation of the fa weight thereof;

Hearses and

(d) For each in the general co ambulances the ov to others, 75 cents

State and m

(e) For each tion or municipali municipal franchi thereof, weighing 4,000 to ing over 6,000 po

School buse

(f) Buses o hool or any o signated by pi

Vehicle owned by charitable corporation, Red Cross, girl scouts, boy scouts.

(g) For each truck owned and operated free of any charge by any bona fide ecclesiastical charitable corporation, or Red Cross, girl scout or boy scout organization, 50 cents per pounds of the weight thereof;

Your comforting expression of sympathy is deeply appreciated and will always be gratefully remembered

The Mac Donald Family

Life-long farmer buried Saturday

Howard Williamson, 85, a retired farmer and a life-long resident of Kalamo township, died early Thursday afternoon, Feb. 20, at his home after a short illness.

Mr. Williamson was born in Kalamo township, son of Samuel and Mary (Cole) Williamson, and was married to Miss Bertha Scott on December 20, 1898, in Kalamo Township. She died in July 1960. Mr. Williamson was a farmer all his life.

Surviving are three sons, Nelson of Kalamo township, Merrel of Charlotte and Paul of Newport Ritchie, Fla.; three daughters, Mrs. John Hoffman of Hastings, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey and Mrs. Harry Walker; both of Charlotte; nine grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sat., Feb. 22, from the Lehman Funeral Home with Rev. H. B. Loomis of the Charlotte Congre-

E. E. Howe Rites To Be Saturday

NASHVILLE — Earl E. Howe, 79, of 304 Sherman St., died at his home Thursday afternoon. Howe, a retired farmer, is survived by his widow, Agnes; three brothers, Herbert of Vermontville, Austin of Bradenton, Fla., and Merrell of Fay, Okla.; a sister, Mrs. Norman Carin of Battle Creek. He was a member of the F&AM No. 232 in Vermontville. Services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at Vogt Funeral Home with burial at Kalamo Cemetery.

period last year. The same

Losses sustained increased accordingly compared to last with the tion of grass fires which in

$295 over last year's figure

Total loss from fire in the 1. report was set at $28,695 whi this year's figure was consider ably lower at $16,950.

gational church officiating. Burial was in Kalamo cemetery, Eaton county.

34