

John Desgranges 17 Fatally Injured

such property, and to such as hereinafter provided. prevent the evasion of property purchased on or purchased for storage, use

Motor vehicles; tax

The tax imposed by vehicle shall be collected by licensed dealer for purpose of person who does not transfer. Notwithstanding vehicle subject to taxation fixed pursuant to rules no value in money shall be given in exchange for gift including transfer when the transaction is

Information and

The department is any other department hereunder, and other department such services, information

This act is ordered Approved May 29,

John Desgranges 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Desgranges of Eaton Rapids was fatally injured Saturday night in a one car accident along with three other teenagers of that community. The driver of the car is in the Eaton Rapids Community Hospital and listed in fair condition. According to Eaton County officers the driver lost control of the car on a curve, hit a tree and rolled over. Eaton County coroner said the four died at the scene of the accident and Desgranges died of a skull fracture.

Surviving are his parents; two brothers Donald and Dennis and two sisters Sue Ellen and Vonda all at home and two grandmothers Mrs. J.W. (Ruth) Desgranges of Lake Odessa and Mrs. Harry Cochran of Charlotte.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Pettit Funeral home at Eaton Rapids with burial in Lakeside cemetery, Lake Odessa.

E. A. Pelton Dies

Funeral services were held for Erastus A. Pelton, 93, of Grand Ledge Sept. 28 at the Holihan Funeral Home in Grand Ledge. Mr Pelton died at a Lansing hospital Sept. 24. Burial was in Union cemetery.

Mr Pelton lived most of his life on Benton road in the Watson district, rural Grand Ledge. Recently he moved to Grand Ledge to make his home with his son. For many years he operated a steam engine and did threshing and hay baling all around Eaton county.

He is survived by a son, Paul, of Grand Ledge, and a sister, Mrs Lydia Pardee of Lansing.

Section amended

Section 1. Section 6804 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, is hereby amended to read:

500.6804 Farmers' mutuals; organization, insuring

Sec. 6804. Any number of persons not less than 25 for the purpose of mutual insurance of the property of its members against fire, lightning, riot, riot attending a strike

MISS TEBE TEMAN

Tebe Teman, Eaton Clerk, Dies at 71

CHARLOTTE—Miss Tebe Teman, 71, Eaton County Clerk for 35 years, died Wednesday of cancer in Hayes - Green - Beach Hospital here.

Besides her long term as county clerk, Miss Teman had served as a deputy clerk from 1920 to 1928.

She also taught in a rural school near here before entering public service for the county. Miss Teman was a member of the State County Clerks' Association, the Methodist Church and the Rebekah Lodge.

A resident of Charlotte for 47 years, Miss Teman had only one survivor, a cousin, Mrs. Alicene Bekkman of Greenville.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p.m. at Burkhead-Cheney Chapel with burial in Maplehill Cemetery.

Zene M. Ward

PORTLAND—Zene M. Ward, 60, of 125 Maple St., died Monday at home after a long illness. Ward was a life-long area resident and was in the auto repair business with his son, Graydon. Other survivors include his wife, Agnes, a daughter, Mrs. Jean Barber of Portland, and eight grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Zora Johnson of Charlotte; a brother, Graydon of California. Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Neller Funeral Home with burial in Portland Cemetery.