

fornia; three sisters, Mrs Fern Warner of Holt, Mrs. Maxine Darrow and Mrs Marion Southwick of Mason; and three grandchildren.

children to care financial not pre shall be in section so defin within the tota

Officialing at the 1 o'clock service were the Rev. Harold Cherry, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, Lansing, and the Rev. William Dondit, pastor of the Sunfield United Brethren Church. Interment was in Sunfield Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Gary White, Ronald White, Terry Southwick, Fred Schroeder, Arthur Comer and John Grifford.

Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home of Sunfield had charge of the arrangements.

Funeral Tuesday For Victim of Auto Accident

VERMONTVILLE — Services for William Darwin Foster, 64, of 130 Fifth St., will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m., at the Vogt Funeral Homes, with burial in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Foster was killed Saturday in a two-car collision on M-79 six miles west of Charlotte. Also killed was Ralph F. Household, 25, of 333 N. Clinton St. Charlotte.

Foster's wife, Leota Mae, 43, was injured and is still in critical condition at Hayes-Green-Beech Hospital, Charlotte.

A native of Eaton County, Foster was a machinist for Oldsmobile for 31 years. He was a member of the Stoney Point Free Methodist Church.

Surviving besides his wife are two sons, Darwin, at home, and Paul of Santa Ana, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Marletta Alldorfer of Vermontville and Mrs. Charlotte Kirchen of Charlotte; two brothers, Kenneth of Grand Ledge, and Burr of Lakeview; and six grandchildren.

400.66a Hospitalization; definite expenses, special nurses. [M.]

Sec. 66a. The several county hospitalization which is necessary and under other law for every person for age assistance, aid to dependent chi medical care for the cost of the department provided, how the definition he Public Ac Provided, fu untly medical ns who are es; admissi state financ improvement o ided in secti t without a requested by t use of being fou of residence out capital expendi rt of the cost of a county m e and/or from The county s will make an of this act but led in section nty medical ce l capital cost from the legis leral funds as the legislatu s for each m the state dep spect to the as previously the establish raise in any of said county, such tax to be regarded as a is other county charges, and moneys received asurer of the county who shall deposit same purposes for which the tax is spread. Money

1957—No. 280

Crash Victim's Rites Scheduled
CHARLOTTE — Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Pray Funeral Home for Ralph F. Household, 25, of 333 N. Clinton St., who was killed in a traffic accident six miles west of here Saturday night. Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery. Household was a Charlotte resident 11 years and was employed as a machinist at Thor Fabricators here.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy; one daughter, Louise; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mayford Household of Charlotte; three brothers, Gerald of Nashville and William and Harvey of California; and two grandfathers, James Household of Illinois and Clare Roach of Bedford.

Mrs. Verne Cheal, 80, Taken by Death

Mrs Verne Cheal, 80, a former rural Sunfield resident, passed away February 3 in a Charlotte hospital. Services were held Saturday at the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home in Sunfield at 3:30 p.m.

She was born October 13, 1885 in Sunfield Township, a daughter of Cyrus and Julia (Rein-smith) Shaffer. Most of her life was spent in the Sunfield area. For the last two years she was a resident at a Charlotte convalescent home. She was a member of the Sunfield Church of the Brethren. Her husband, William, passed away in 1963.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. James Edwards of New Mexico and Mrs. Layton Sayer of Sunfield; two sons, Edward of Charlotte and Clifford of rural Vermontville; two sisters, Mrs. John Guy of Vermontville and Mrs. Harvey Runyon of Lake Odessa, a brother Elmer Shaffer of Sunfield; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Charles Gibbs, pastor of the South Woodland Church of the Brethren, officiated. Burial was in Sunfield Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Claude Van Blarecom, Delmond Frantz, Donald Collier, Jesse Wise, Kenneth Haskins and Loyd Steward.

City Income Tax