

FRANK W. WALSH

Frank W. Walsh, former resident of Vermontville, Michigan, passed away on April 20, 1968 at his home in Clearwater, Florida.

Mr Walsh was born in Michigan on January 20, 1888. He received his B.A. degree from Western State and his M.A. degree from the University of Iowa. He was a teacher at the Bismark School until 1920 when he left the area to become a staff member of the Industrial Arts Department at the Oshkosh Normal School in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. He retired from teaching in 1931 to enter private enterprise. Mr Walsh contributed to the field of industry by designing and developing special charts used to expedite perspective drawing in many fields. He was a life member of the American Society for Engineering Education.

His survivors include his widow, Mrs Garnet R. Walsh of Clearwater, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs Evelyn Walsh Jagdfeld of Clearwater, Fla.; a son, Richard G. Walsh, of Indianapolis, Ind.; 14 grandchildren, and 6 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services, conducted by Reverend Curtis R. Bonner of the First Methodist Church of Clearwater, were held April 23, 1968. Interment was at Sylvan Abbey Memorial Gardens in Clearwater, Florida.

Former Rural Resident Buried Here May 1st

Funeral services were held for Mrs Carrie Bair, 84, of Lake Odessa on May 1st at the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home in Sunfield. Mrs Bair passed away April 28 at the Eaton County Melical Care Facility in Charlotte. She had been hospitalized in Hastings since March 26 before entering the facility.

For many years Mrs Bair lived on a farm south of Sunfield before moving to Lake Odessa in 1949.

She leaves a grandson, Larry Hayden of Lansing and a great grandchild.

The Rev. Mark Vietzne of the Sunfield Methodist Church officiated at the 2 p.m. service. Interment was in Sunfield Cemetery.

Casketbearers were Lance Brooke, Harland Meadows, Floyd Roush, Floyd Baxter and Neil Holihan.

of said section anty, Michigan, tion 12, as per l county, Mich-

the southwest Plats, page 32,

d section 12, as unty, Michigan,

d section 12, as unty, Michigan,

tors at a special votes cast, 118, l. 17, 1956.

ip to the village

Act of 1895, as amended, relatives here received word of the death Saturday of Frank W. Walsh, 81, at his home in Florida. The son of Mr and Mrs John Walsh, he was born and raised in this vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

vicinity and, taught in several local schools, and was a Manual Training teacher in Oshkosh for several years. He developed and drew "Architectural Skeletons" which he traveled over the country selling the book to schools, colleges, and libraries. He leaves his wife, Garnet, at 2286 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Greenacres, Clearwater, Fla. 33515, a son Richard of Indianapolis, a daughter, Evelyn Jagdfeldt of Clearwater, and several grandchildren.

the matter of the ir
in accordance w
clude the following embraced in all, or
or parts of secti
at the northwest c
sections 30 and 2
on 20; thence n
er of southeast quarter, er, of southeast quarter of section 20; thence south corner of section 20; thence east along north line of section 28, 653.05 feet ner of Hickory Hill Golf and Country Club Subdivision; thence south along 185