

Everett Peck Dies in Iowa

Everett Peck, 65, a former Eaton county sheriff, and for the past seven years of Cotter, Iowa, died of a heart attack Tuesday night at a hospital in Iowa City, Iowa. Mr. Peck served as sheriff of Eaton county for ten years from 1947 to 1956. He was undersheriff 12 years prior to being sheriff. He was a World War I veteran and a member of the Charlotte Eaton Rapids American Legion posts. Surviving are the wife, Anita; a son, Richard, at home and a daughter, Mrs. Winfield (Susan) Pardee of Belleville, Illinois. Funeral services will be held Friday at the Stacy Funeral Home in Columbus Junction, Iowa.

notice shall be conclusive proof that the persons to whom such notice shall be mailed by the terms of the will shall not constitute a day at home shall have been with graveside notification m. at Riverside Mount Pleasant.

the persons whose names and addresses appear upon the particular special notice was mailed of this section. T Juliette Gehman, 89, lifelong a jurisdictional de Vermontville area resident, were given by publicat held at the Clark Memorial shall be paid by Chapel in Grand Rapids with notice said board burial in Grand Haven. Mrs. necessity of said Gehman passed away unexpectedly Dec. 31. Surviving are a health, convenient daughter, Mrs. Miriam Ross of ment for benefits Wareham, Mass.; a stepson, Earl pality affected m. Gehman of Vermontville; and a if they deem it i stepdaughter, Mrs. Eliza Emery county treasurer of Nashville and seven grand- assessments levied children. the 3 years next pre-and if it shall appear 1. Ernest C. Woodlief said lands, no further action. Woodlief, 69, of 910 provided, the board shall make Lansing, died whether the same is necessary and at the Eaton the said board shall find by a majority Hospital said drain is not necessary and conducive He had shall file with the commissioner an order dis- resident said drain shall be entertained within 1 year a- retired majority vote, as aforesaid, shall find the said di- sis- conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare- ld effect and file the same with the said commissioner.

struction of the proposed drain is necessary for the protection of the public health in 1 or more cities, villages and townships, the order shall set forth such determination giving the names of such municipality or municipalities receiving benefit for health; and in that case, the board may determine that the whole cost thereof, except that which may be apportioned for benefits to highways, shall be apportioned to such townships, cities and villages at large, and it shall not be necessary, in any subsequent order or notice to describe or refer to any

HECTOR B. HAWKINS

May 4, 1887

24

October 25, 1963

Services at

The Colonial Chapel
Estes-Leadley Funeral Home

Monday, October 28, 1963 — 1:00 P. M.

Clergyman

Rev. Robert Buck

Miss Clara W. Besch, Organist

Mrs. Marjorie Snyder, Singer

Interment

EVERGREEN CEMETERY

Bradley Duckworth

David Snell

John Duckworth

Rev. Dwight Conrad

Elwood Hawkins

Lawrence Hawkins

—Bearers

Mrs. Juliette Gehman

Funeral services for Mrs. Juliette Gehman, 89, lifelong Vermontville area resident, were held at the Clark Memorial Chapel in Grand Rapids with burial in Grand Haven. Mrs. Gehman passed away unexpectedly Dec. 31. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Miriam Ross of Wareham, Mass.; a stepson, Earl Gehman of Vermontville; and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Eliza Emery of Nashville and seven grandchildren.

Ernest C. Woodlief

Woodlief, 69, of 910 Lansing, died at the Eaton Hospital in Grand Haven. He had been a resident of Eaton for many years. He had a wife, Mrs. Woodlief, who died several years ago. He had several children and grandchildren. Services were held at the Stacy Funeral Home in Columbus Junction, Iowa.

Mrs. Esther I. Briggs

Mrs. Esther Irene Briggs, 84, R. 2, Vermontville, lifelong resident of Barry and Eaton counties, died Monday, January 6, in Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital, where she had been a patient a week. She was born at Hickory Corners, Barry county, and was married June 12, 1902, in Kalamazoo to Fred Briggs, who survives her, along with a son, Louis, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Austin (Ruth) Janousek of R. 2, Vermontville, five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Services were held Wednesday at the Vogt Funeral Home. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.