

Dale J. Benjamin, 70, Taken by Death Friday

Dale J. Benjamin, 70, of W. St. Josephy Highway, R. 1, Lansing, retired state conservation officer, died of a heart attack Friday, Feb. 14, at Laredo, Tex., where he and Mrs Benjamin were spending the winter.

A lifelong resident of Delta Township, he retired last July after 39 years with the law enforcement branch of the state conservation department. His entire time with the conservation department had been on assignment in Eaton County.

Mr Benjamin was a 32nd degree Mason and was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 179, Grand Ledge; and Shrine and Consistry, Grand Rapids.

He was a life member of the Eaton Rapids Conservation Club and was a member of the Ingham County Conservation Club.

He was also treasurer of the Dale J. Benjamin Land Development Co. in association with his sons who are developing a subdivision on the former Benjamin farm.

At one time Mr Benjamin operated the farm. Before he went to work for the conservation department he was Delta Township clerk.

Surviving are his wife, Evelyn; four sons, Darwin of Sunfield, Lyle and Dale of Delta Township and Kenneth of Lansing, and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 18, at the Peters Funeral Home, Grand Ledge. Burial was in Delta Center Cemetery.
