

Pearl Starkweather Dies Here Monday

Pearl J. Starkweather, 71, of 507 Foote St., Charlotte, died of a heart ailment at 3 a. m. Monday at his residence after a ten-year illness.

Mr. Starkweather was born August 28, 1892, in Oneida township, the son of Adelbert and Lucy (Clay) Starkweather. He had been a resident of Eaton county his entire life and of Charlotte the past 26 years.

Mr. Starkweather was a retired farmer and Eaton County road commission employee. He was married November 5, 1913 in Charlotte to Georgia Goodrich.

Surviving are the wife; a daughter, Mrs. Glenn (Leone) Strickland of Charlotte; four sons, Junior of Bellevue, Bob of Route 2, Charlotte, Enos of Charlotte and Theo, of Route 6, Charlotte; 18 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Wednesday at the Burkhead-Cheney Chapel. Burial will be in Needmore cemetery in Chester township.

The board of supervisors, by a majority vote, has authorized the board of health to deposit the cost of the proposed drain in the county treasury. The board of supervisors, by a majority vote, has authorized the board of health to deposit the cost of the proposed drain in the county treasury.

Mrs. Eva J. Green

VERMONTVILLE—Mrs. Eva J. Green, 88, Vermontville, died Friday evening in a Hastings nursing home. Survivors include three sons, Dr. E. J. Green of Grayling, and Phil and Stanley Green, Vermontville; two daughters, Mrs. Ben Dove of Battle Creek, and Mrs. Robert Mead, Nashville; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Vogt Funeral Home, and burial in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Sec. 101. Before any drain, which pro than 1 county, the such lands an applic proposed drain there of such proposed d said drainage distric 50% of any of the plied for or abut o between a point wh highway and which to such application

IN MEMORY OF

Eva J. Green
1876--1964

SERVICES FROM

Vogt Funeral Home
Monday, May 11 -- 2 pm

CLERGYMAN OFFICIATING

Rev. Leonard Maunder
Vermontville Congregational Church

PALLBEARERS

Curtis Rockafellar
Dana Dean
Lewis Flood
Hugh Flood
Dale Northrup
LeGrande Freemire

INTERMENT

Woodlawn Cemetery
Vermontville to ap-
ds, ich ers
the

Rev. Ira C. Snavely Passes Away

Rev. Ira Calvert Snavely, 88, retired minister, passed away, Thursday, May 14 at the Chelsea Methodist Home at Chelsea, Michigan.

A native of Hudson, Illinois, he was the eighth child of a family of twelve children and his parents were Moses Y. and Sally Snavely.

He entered the ministry at the age of twenty and following his college education he was first pastor of the Kearney Mission in Central Nebraska. He spent the years of 1909 to 1912 in Bethany Bible School while serving as pastor of the church at Naperville, Ill., and spent some months holding Bible Institutes under Bethany's sponsorship, mostly in Washington state and some in Iowa. Other pastorates were in Michigan, Indiana, Nebraska and Colorado retiring when he was past seventy years of age. His late years were spent in a pleasant Methodist Retirement Home with his wife at Chelsea. He had been a resident there since July 12, 1960.

Surviving are his wife, the former Virginia Wine of Octavia Nebraska, whom he married in 1899; a daughter Mrs. Carl (Gladys) Welch of Jackson; three sons Dr. Lyle Snavely of Glasgow, Ky., Dale of Nappanee, Ind., and Duane of Woodland; 11 grand children and 18 great grand children.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:00 at the Pickens funeral chapel with burial in Sunfield cemetery. Rev. Fay Wing of Woodland and Rev. Owen Shankster of Sunfield officiated.