

Charles E. Tew Dies Unexpectedly

Charles E. Tew, 72, owner of the Tew Insurance Agency passed away suddenly, Monday forenoon, enroute to his office.

A lifelong resident of Ionia county, he was a former manager and had charge of the shoe department of the E.C. Tew & Sons clothing store for many years. He married Ethel B. Dilley of Sunfield, June 22, 1915 and they have lived their entire married life in Lake Odessa.

He was the son of Charles and Ada Tew.

Mr. Tew was a member of the Central Methodist church, Lions club and Lake Odessa F&AM lodge No. 395.

Surviving are his wife Ethel; two daughters, Mrs. Kingsley (Gertrude) Montgomery of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Robert (Kathryn) Scholes of Arlington, Va.; three grandchildren and a nephew Denard Caswell business man of Ionia.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 at the Pickens Funeral Chapel, with burial in Lakeside cemetery. Rev. Luther Brokaw officiated.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
Approved June 4, 1957.

Carl J. Droste

PORTLAND—Carl J. Droste, 5-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Droste, 5867 Bippley Road, died at his home Monday. Coroner Richard Hull of Muir said death was due to pneumonia. Also surviving are three brothers, Marvin Jr., Norman and Richard, at home; three sisters, Cilinda, Eva and Monica, at home; and the grandparents, Mrs. Antionette Nyari of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Heaton of Fowler, Mich. Services will be Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at Neller Funeral Home, Burial will be in East Sebawa Cemetery.

*Dear Br. Carl
Blue baby*

IC A

Former druggist here dies at 80

V. Dale Andrews, 80 of 20 Breble St. Battle Creek died about 8 a.m. Tuesday in a Battle Creek hospital where he had been a patient since Thursday.

Mr. Andrews was a druggist, first in Bellevue and later in Battle Creek until his retirement in 1945.

He was born Oct. 10, 1884, in Nashville, son of John and Ellen (Butterfield) Andrews. He was graduated from Ferris Institute as a pharmacist and worked as a druggist in Carson City. He met his wife, the former Lois Loomis, in Carson City, and they were married in Charlotte in June 13, 1910.

In 1917 they came to Bellevue where he owned the drugstore until 1939 when they moved to Battle Creek. There he bought the Enwood Pharmacy on Main Street, and operated it until retiring in 1945. Subsequently he did relief work as a druggist in various stores in the Battle Creek area. His wife died in 1962.

Mr. Andrews was a past master of Bellevue Lodge, F&AM, and was a life member of the lodge. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Keith (Virginia) Masters of 250 Feld Ave., Battle Creek, Mrs. William (Barbara) Dean of Grosse Pointe Farms, and Mrs. Douglas (Marjorie) Richie of Flagler, Colo.; five grandchildren and eight step-grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Holman and Mrs. Belle Powers and a brother, Harley Andrews, all of Nashville.

Ernest Wonser

MULLIKEN — Ernest Wonser, 87, a retired farmer of R. 1, Mulliken, died Saturday at a Charlotte convalescent home. He is survived by his wife, Susie; three daughters, Mrs. Ruth McCormick of Omer, Mrs. Esther Bosworth of Vermontville and Mrs. Mary Smouse of Los Angeles; four sons, Floyd of Battle Creek, Cash of Grand Ledge, and Roy and Lee of Mulliken; a brother, Lee, of Charlotte; 18 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren. Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Barker Funeral Home. Burial will be in Meadowbrook Cemetery.

ontage upon cord owners
nent district
l be deter-iling of the c highways
signatures
the validity
filing the

7)]
ship board qual annual t exceeding nt, if more ation. The after con-
ments shall from such eir transfer nnually on eeding 6%
due install-
p treasurer
nt. If any be deemed above pro-
t the same
upon the

ended "An e of Mich-
g the cen-
paying the
as amended,

ns 46.211