

DEATHS

VOOLSTON, CLYDE

37 E. Ash St., Mason

Age 58, died at a local hospital, Feb. 14, 1965. He had been a resident of Mason for 2 1/2 years, formerly of Lansing and Owosso; was a member of Presbyterian Church; an accountant with Ingham County Road Commission for 2 1/2 years; comptroller with Mitchell-Bentley Corp. at Owosso for 15 years; attended University of Detroit, and graduated from Ferris State College. Surviving are his wife, Eloise of Mason; 1 son, Gerald of Alba, Mich.; 1 daughter, Mrs. Ernest Snyder of Holt; 1 brother, Donald Woolston of Highland, Ind.; 3 sisters, Mrs. Loren Birdsall and Mrs. Davis Seilman of Saginaw; and 2 grandchildren, Bonnie and Tom Snyder of Holt. Religious services will be conducted by Pastor Paul R. Martin of Holt Presbyterian Church and Rev. N. T. Keizer at Holt Presbyterian Church at 1:00 Wednesday afternoon, with interment in Riverside Cemetery, Bellevue, Mich. The body will be at the Estes-Leadley Holt Chapel until 11:30 A.M. Wednesday, then taken to the Church to lie-in state from 12:00 Noon until service time.

l "An
ficials
on of ertain
r and gainst
e the
with,"
of the

ed by Laws

osses

votes:

Bellevue Gazette

BURIED HERE

Mr. Clyde Woolston of Mason, died at the St. Lawrence hospital in Lansing Sunday, February 14, following a long illness. His widow, Mrs. Eloise (Bishop) Woolston is the daughter of Mr.

BELLEVUE (MICH.)

and Mrs. E.L. Bishop who operated a grocery store in Bellevue for many years. Mr. Woolston's funeral was held at Holt, Mich. and burial was in Riverside cemetery here.

simultaneous shall be void and not counted; of being tied or held in 1 package, and placed in

V. Dale Andrews

V. Dale Andrews, a former Nashville resident, died Tuesday morning in a Battle Creek hospital. Mr. Andrews entered the hospital about a week ago.

He was born in Vermontville Township in 1884. He attended Nashville high school and was graduated from Ferris Institute Pharmacy school.

He was married in 1910 to Lora Loomis, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Andrews operated a drug store in Bellevue for awhile and later moved to Battle Creek where he owned a drug store. He retired from business some 20 years ago.

Surviving Mr. Andrews are three daughters, Mrs. Keith Masters of Battle Creek, Mrs. William Dean of Detroit, and Mrs. Douglas Richie of Flagler, Colorado. Mrs. Nelson Goertz, another daughter, preceded him in death.

Surviving also are Mrs. Harry Holman, Mrs. Clara Belle Powers and Mr. Harley Andrews, all of Nashville.

Vern L. Barnes

CARSON CITY — Vern L. Barnes, 76, of rural Carson City, died Sunday at a Grand Rapids hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks. He was a retired farmer. He had been a Carson City resident for about two years after moving here from Mulliken where he had resided for about 40 years. Surviving are his wife, Florence; a daughter, Mrs. Frank Cody of Ionia; three grandchildren; two brothers, Ernest and Lee of Grand Ledge; two sisters, Mrs. Lottie MacLaren of Mulliken and Mrs. Gladys Dyke of Ionia. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Burns Funeral Home, Carson City. Burial will be in the Meadowbrook Cemetery, Mulliken. The body will be at the family home.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO — 1940

Monday — Arthur E. Kidder of Lansing, assistant attorney general for the past 14 years, died yesterday in Florida. The City Council said a floodlighting system would be installed in Municipal Park so Lansing can take part in the newly organized Michigan Baseball League. The council also approved a municipal plan to follow in constructing residential and commercial areas.

1965