

JD

Marion E. Deuel

the governor, 1 shall be a representative of an insurance i state, 1 shall be a representative of an electrical energy state, 1 shall be an electrical contractor operating in electrician serving as a supervisor, 1 shall be an electrica electrical inspector of a municipality, and 1 shall be a primarily and actively engaged in producing material, fitt apparatus and the like, used as part of, or in connection w the 7 members first appointed, 3 shall be appointed for a 2 years, and 2 for a term of 3 years. Thereafter, each app 3 years. The members of the board annually shall elect a meetings 4 times a request of 4 membe

The members of
actual and necessary

In political subc
and its installation,
for similar inspecti
according to the lat
electrical inspectors
a journeyman's lice

338.884 Electric
methods. [M

Sec. 4. New c
buildings and struct
not excluded by thi
prescribed by the 1

All installations
and in conformity
orders, rules and re
with this act.

Conformity of
in the national elec
other safety codes
be prima facie evide

The board may aut
it provides inspection
inspection department if

338.885 Same; licer

Sec. 5. Except as p firm or corporation to
the generation, distribu
without being duly lice
ing a permit from the b

338.886 Same; licer
18.204(6)]

Sec. 6. The provi
jurisdiction of any cin
ordinance providing sti
prescribed by the 1956
as limiting the power o
of persons, firms or co
municipality, or to pr
municipality except th

Father of Pauline Lehman dies Tues.

Adolph Douse, 79, father of Mrs. Carl Lehman, died Tuesday noon at a Lansing hospital where he had been a patient nine days. He lived in Lansing at the time of his death.

Mr. Douse was born in Austria, a son of Joseph and Julia Douse. He was employed by Lansing Motor Wheel until he retired about nine years ago.

Surviving besides Mrs. Lehman are two other daughters, Mrs. Harold Voelker of Daytona Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Harlin Scobey of Woodland; two sons, Adolph Jr. of Nashville and Kenneth of Lansing; 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Lehman Funeral Home, Friday

Ex-Eaton Woman, Mrs. Lamb Dies

Mrs. Emily Elizabeth Lamb, 63, a former Vermontville resident, died Tuesday at a Lansing Hospital. She was a Vermontville resident until 1961 when she moved to Lansing where she resided at 536 Kendon Drive.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Virginia McCrimmon of Lansing; two step-daughters, Mrs. Audrey Northrup of Detroit and Mrs. Annetta Moore of Coldwater; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; and a brother, C. B. Tompkins of California.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Vogt Funeral Home, Nashville. Burial will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

Services

Sunday, March 14, 1965
2:00 P. M.

Pray Funeral Home
Charlotte, Michigan

Officiating

Rev. Floyd Nagel

Organist

Ella Beth Nevins

Interment

Fremire Cemetery
Eaton County, Michigan

Casket Bearers

Cecil Deuel Calvin Porter
Charles Deuel Lawrence Porter
Victor Deuel Keith Seitz

Retired Press Operator Dies Tuesday Morning

Clifford Lyle Thompson, 71, of Nashville, a retired punch press operator, died Tuesday morning in Leila-Post Hospital, Battle Creek, where he had been a patient eight days.

A life-long resident of Barry and Eaton counties, Mr. Thompson was born in Hastings Aug. 7, 1893, a son of John and Artie (Hall) Thompson. On Jan. 31, 1915, he was married to Ruth Pullman of Vermontville.

Besides the wife, Mr. Thompson is survived by five sons, Lyle of Albion, Clarence of Nashville, Albert and Robert both of Charlotte and Donald of Hastings; a brother, Glenn of Grand Rapids; a sister, Mrs. Gladys Stanton of Maple City; 20 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the Vogt Funeral Home, Nashville, with burial in Lakeview Cemetery, Nashville.

Installation not less than those contained herein shall be construed as to provide for the licensing of electricians who reside in the procurement of a license or