

76

Mrs. Lillian Smith
 NASHVILLE — Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Smith, 85, of M-79 a mile and a half west of here, will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Nashville Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Lakeview Cemetery, Nashville. She died Saturday night at a Hastings hospital after a heart attack. She had been a Nashville area resident since 1903. She was a member of the Woman's Literary Club and was twice elected president of the Barry County Federation of Women's Clubs. She was a member of the Nashville Methodist Church. She is survived by her husband, Chester; two sons, Robert L. of Western Springs, Ill., Frank B. of Midland; a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Good of Washington, D.C.; two sisters, Mrs. Rhea Bruegger and Mrs. Helen Osterstock of Ohio; and five grandchildren.

And the Power!...
 And the Glory, forever!
 Amen

In Memory of
CHARLES R. DEAN
 Born August 25, 1875
 Eaton County, Mich.
 Passed away March 24, 1965
 Pleasant View Hospital
 Corunna, Mich.
 Funeral services Saturday, March 27, 1965, at 11 a.m. from Vermontville Methodist Church with Rev. Robert Townsend officiating.
 Organist: Mr. Gene Webber
 Final Resting Place
 Woodlawn Cemetery
 Vermontville, Mich.
 Bearers
 Larry Dean Walter Roath
 James L. Dean William Gurnee
 George Roath Ralph Overton

of occupied trailers located in licensed trailer coach parks, to provide for the disposal of all...
 of t...
 sure...
 and...
 12...
 fra...
 pa...
 of...
 ac...
 st...
 tl...
 2...
 t...
 r...
 sed...
 by...
 a...

AREA DEATHS

Charles R. Dean
 VERMONTVILLE — Charles R. Dean, 89, Corunna, a former area resident, died Thursday. Survivors include three sons, Ralph M. of Belding, Lauren E. of Corunna, and Frank L. of Flint; three daughters, Mrs. Olga Roath of Lansing, Mrs. Alyce Adamy of Bellaire, and Mrs. Clarice Bellows, Saginaw; 12 grandchildren, and 28 great-grandchildren; and a brother, George of Rupert, Idaho. Services will be at Vermontville Methodist Church Saturday at 11 a.m., with burial at Woodlawn Cemetery. The body is at Hoffman Funeral Home, Belding.

Mrs. Olive N
 CRYSTAL

Our Father... which art in heaven...