

Services For C. M. Wilson, C. of C. Head

each suc
purposes
possessio
a self-lo
leg of s
said de disposed director
are now
314.34
[M.S
Sec.
applicati
of this s
animals,
of $1.00
Appr

C. Maurice Wilson

1952, be and to ad
and part for two weeks. He had been ill for several months.

Sec. 1907 in Goodland, Ind., son of Section Charles and Ethel (Mitten) Wil-2 and 8 son. He was married June 30, 125.74, 1932 in Grand Edge to Josephine new secti Catey. They moved to this area to read 30 years ago.

125.72 Mr. Wilson was a district gov-Sec. ernor of Lions club in 1959-60. He the foll was a past president, past secreontext: tary and a charter member of the "Blig Charlotte Lions club. He was a No. 120, F&AM, and was a mem-er of the Congregational church.
Mr. Wilson owned a tire re-air store here from 1949 to 1964
which time he became man

(Continued on page 2)

any real prop
uisition of which is deemed necessar
"Municipality" shall mean any co
"Development plan" shall mean :
lighted area.

MAURICE WILSON . . .
(Continued from Page 1)
ager for the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce. Prior to 1949, he owned a farm implement store here. camp
The Mr. Wilson is survived by his in his wife; a daughter, Mrs. James permit (Patricia Ann) Crandall of Sagi- head or ckinaw; a son, James of Charlotte; bil the idennis parents, living in Eaton Rap- may be wids; a brother, Max of Eaton m the Rapids; four sisters, Mrs. Mildred hides Murdoch of Mundelein, Ill. Mrs.
Guy (Jane) Walters of Charlotte, Mrs. John (Doris) Ellsworth of otter.
Mason, and Mrs. Raymond (Marjorie) Palmer of Amherst, Wis., and six grandchildren. when Funeral services were held sident Saturday at 2 p.m. from the earing Burkhead-Cheney chapel, the a fee Rev. H. B. Loomis officiating, and burial was in Maple Hill cemetery.

296.] Elnor V. Taylor
CHARLOTTE—Mrs. Elnor V. 1945, Taylor, 76, R. 2, Vermontville adopt died Tuesday in Athens. She had such been ill nearly a year, was a reas; lifelong Charlotte and Vermont- the ville area resident until two e the months ago. She is survived by ts of her husband, Adelbert, a sister, 1948.
Mrs. Charles Grodavent of Bat- acts tle Creek; three brothers, Charles and Cecil Kincaid of Battle Creek, and Roy Kincaid, Owosso. Services will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at Burkhead-Cheney Chapel, Charlotte. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Bellevue. ections

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs Alta Deer. Our correspondent, Mrs Deer, passed away last week.
Mrs Deer wrote the news for the if Aldrich district. ave
the

RESIDENCE 543-O
LANSING, MICH
BUSINESS 972-1320
111 W. BARNES AVE.

DELMER EMENHISER

ALL STAR Realty Co.