There'll be a very empty spot where Alta Deer functioned. She was the one in a million who said her piece, worked energetically for all she believed in, and expected others to do the same. A former president of the Reporters, Alta was a longtime correspondent, who used her pen to help others, and knew her area and its people very well. A golden pen in the next land is probably already being put to good use by a great lady!
