

1166

Pastor N. A. McCune's Widow, 87, Dies Sunday

Beginning at the intersection the south side of the north half northeasterly along said center more or less, to the edge of E said eighth line; thence wester

Record of proceedings filed

In the matter of the annexa

Annexed in accordance wit to include the following descri

Commencing at a point 6 : west quarter of the southeast ginning; thence north 6 rods rods to the point of beginning;

Record of proceedings filed

In the matter of the annexat

Annexed in accordance wit to include the following descri

Beginning at a point in tl of the southwest quarter of se thence south 211.125 feet; th beginning.

Record of proceedings filed

In the matter of the annexa

Annexed in accordance wit to include the following descri

The northeast quarter of tl

Record of proceedings filed

In the matter of the annexat

Annexed in accordance with the provisions of Act 279, Public Acts of 1909, as amended, to include the following described territory:

All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the township of Fabius, St. Joseph county, Michigan, known and described as follows:

GRAND RAPIDS—Mrs. Caroline Jennings McCune, widow of the former pastor of Peoples Church in East Lansing, died Sunday at the age of 87.

Mrs. McCune moved to East Lansing with her husband from Benton Harbor when he became pastor of Peoples Church in 1917. He was minister 32 years and minister emeritus until his death in 1965.

They moved to Grand Rapids

Mrs. McCune

in 1964 and both entered Clark Home, a Methodist retirement home, where she died. Her life was notable for its service and activity.

In 1899, when women in higher education were pioneers, she entered Olivet College as a freshman. She prepared for an education career there and at Western Michigan University and Michigan State University. Before she earned her degree in 1929, she married Newell Avery McCune in 1907, and had one son, John, an attorney and former member of the Michigan Legislature.

Mrs. McCune was a past president of the East Lansing Women's Club, served 30 years on the YWCA Advisory Board, and was active in the American Association of University Women.

The AAUW, Lansing-East Lansing branch, named their 1953 International Study Grant in her honor, the Caroline McCune Fellowship Grant.

The McCune's home at 238 Durand, East Lansing, was an informal international center for foreign students during his ministry at Peoples Church.

Survivors include the son, John, of Reno, Nev., and two grandchildren. Services will be 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Clark Home Chapel, 1516 Sherman S.E., with burial in Petoskey where Mrs. McCune was born.

Services will be Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at the M. J. Clark Memorial Home Chapel, Grand Rapids, with burial at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at Greenwood Cemetery, Petoskey.

A memorial service will be 1:30 p.m. Friday in McCune Chapel of Peoples Church in East Lansing. Contributions may be made to the Memorial Fund of Peoples Church.

Jerome Laken

Jerome H. Laken, 61, of Houghton Lake, a former Lansing resident, died at a Grayling hospital Saturday.

He moved to Houghton Lake in 1960.

Surviving are his wife, Arda; a son, John Laken of Springville, Calif., two daughters, Mrs. Frances Swift of Springville, Calif., and Mrs. Sally Robinson of Santa Barbara, Calif.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Janet Shevfelt of Mt. Clemens, and 14 grandchildren.

Services will be in the Estes-Leadley Colonial Chapel at 1 p.m. Wednesday, with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery. The body will arrive in Lansing Tuesday.

Lincoln Loomis

Lincoln M. Loomis, 87, Detroit, formerly of Lansing, died Saturday in Detroit.

He was employed at Reo Motors before moving to Detroit in 1929.

Surviving are two sons, Victor of East Lansing and Raymond of Lansing and two grandsons.

Services will be Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Gorsline-Runciman Funeral Home with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery, located in city of Three Rivers.

Howe

Fabius township to the