

182

Former Resident Dies

Lawrence Scheel, age 78, of Chula Vista, Calif., passed away November 13th after several months illness.

Surviving are his wife, Grace; one daughter, Kathryn; three grandchildren; one brother, Leeland, of Wayland; two sisters, Elsie Freemire of Sunfield and Esther Fay of Levering.

Mr Scheel operated the garage where the Trask Fix-It Shop located for about 20 years.

Ivan Harmon, 74, buried at Kalamo

Ivan Harmon, 74, of Kalamo township, died about 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 22, at his home following an illness of about eight months.

Arrangements were made by Lehman Funeral, with the service said by the Rev. Lowell Elsworth. Chosen pallbearers are Robert Wyble, Devere Starobert and Edward Keehne, Robert Burkett and Robert Merrifield. Kalamo cemetery is the site of his final resting place.

Mr. Harmon was born Nov. 20, 1892, in Kalamo township, son of John and Lena (Johnson) Harmon, and had been a farmer all his life.

On May 19, 1956, he married Mrs. Essie Rich in Bellevue. Surviving besides his wife are four stepdaughter, Mrs. Robert Wyble, Mrs. Edward Brzycki and Mrs. Richard Graham, all of Route 2 Charlotte, and Mrs. Howard Robinson of Shaftburg; a stepson, Albert Rich of Eaton Rapids; 19 stepgrandchildren and five stepgreat-grandchildren.

cept as otherwise provided in the amount called for by the act for the same item or provision of law, in any case act for the same item or provision during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1966, the amount required appropriation law, wherever the amount is to be distributed by existing appropriation of the particular appropriation in this act upon a pro rata basis of the appropriations herein provided.

Rest of Mrs. Helen R. Barnum, formerly of 119 N. Deerfield, will be held Saturday, Dec. 10, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. at the Cross Church with interment in St. Joseph Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at the Palmer Funeral Home on Friday at 3:30 p.m. Pallbearers will be: Wm. J. Williams, James Wams, Ronald Rohlman, James Rohlman, John Rohlman, Steve Senter.

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen R. Barnum, formerly of 119 N. Deerfield, will be held Saturday, Dec. 10, 1966, at 9:30 a.m. at the Cross Church with interment in St. Joseph Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited at the Palmer Funeral Home on Friday at 3:30 p.m. Pallbearers will be: Wm. J. Williams, James Wams, Ronald Rohlman, James Rohlman, John Rohlman, Steve Senter.

Clare Figg

Clare Figg, a retired farmer from Vermontville died on Tuesday evening, December 1 in a Lansing Hospital at the age of 74.

Mr. Figg was born December 13, 1891, in Sebawa Township, Eaton County, a son of David and Ida (Stinchcomb) Figg.

On Feb. 2, 1915, he was married in Sunfield Township to Ethol Gearhart. They lived on a farm north of Sunfield until 1917 when they moved to Kelly Highway.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Kenyon (Jane) Thrun and Mrs. Richard (Phyllis) Wright, all of Vermontville, and Mrs. Paul (Alene) Gilmore of Holt; 12 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Vermontville Methodist church on Saturday, December 3 with the Rev. Warren Jackson and Robert E. Townsend officiating.

Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. Figg was a member of the Maplewood Farm Bureau and the Vermontville Methodist Church. He was treasurer of the Patterson School District for about 25 years until the district consolidated with the Vermontville district.

Harry Hunter

Funeral services were held on Friday, December 2 from the Vogt Funeral Home for Harry Hunter, 81, a retired farmer, who lived at 722 Reed St., Nashville. Prior to that he lived in the Vermontville area.

Mr. Hunter was born October 31, 1875 in Kalamo Township, a son of William and Mary (Smith) Hunter. He was married to Bernice Schram on June 23, 1928, in Battle Creek. She died several years ago.

Mr. Hunter was a life member of Vermontville Lodge F&AM.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Edith Alsover and Mrs. Agnes Howe, both of Nashville.

The Rev. B. J. Varner officiated at the services from the Vogt Funeral Home and interment was in Lakeview cemetery, Nashville.

Rome Perkins

SUNFIELD — Rome Perkins, 77, of rural Sunfield, died Tuesday night at a Charlotte hospital. He formerly operated a garage in Millett.

Mr. Perkins is survived by his wife, Fern; two sons, Ronald, at home, and Gerald of Rochester; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. at the Mapes-Fisher Funeral Home, with burial in Sunfield Cemetery.

herein from restricted funds, federal and match-expended from such restricted funds shall not exceed the amount paid into such funds together with restricted funds during the fiscal year ending June