

Obituaries and Funeral Notices DEATHS

GILLICUDDY, DR. ROBERT J.

8 E. Oakwood Drive, East Lansing

Age 58, died at a local hospital, July 27, 1967. He was born at Shepardsville, Mich., Dec. 27, 1908; resident of Lansing since 1919; graduate of Lansing Central High School; attended Michigan State College and was a graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School in 1932; started his medical practice in Lansing in 1936; served in World War II in the U.S. Medical Corps as Major, serving in U.S. New Guinea, the Philippines and Japan. He was a member of: Ingham County and Michigan State Medical Societies; the American Medical Association; and a member of and Board Certified Member of the American Academy of Pediatrics; also, a member of the Michigan State University Varsity Club, Lansing Rotary Club, Lansing Country Club and a member of Peoples Church. Surviving are the wife, Ruth R.; two sons, Dr. James E. of Lansing; Robert B. with the U.S. Marines, stationed in Pensacola, Fla.; Denis M. of Lansing and one daughter, Miss Melissa of East Lansing; one brother, Dr. Oliver B. of East Lansing. Funeral services will be at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Estes-Ledley Colonial Chapel conducted by Dr. G. Wallace Robertson of Peoples Church and interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends who wish may make donations to the Rotary Crippled Children's Committee.

Worth A. Ward

VERMONTVILLE — Worth A. Ward, 82, of 501 S. Main St., Vermontville, died today at a Battle Creek hospital.

He was a lifelong Vermontville area resident and a retired farmer.

Surviving are his wife, Catherine; three daughters, Mrs. Carl Banta of Battle Creek, Mrs. Elvin Stillwell of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Elmer Conard of Charlotte; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Ned Moraan of Florida; and a brother, Graydon Ward of Florida.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Monday in the Congregational Church, Vermontville. Burial will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

The body is at the Vogt Funeral Home, Vermontville.

Section 17. The value of the property contained therein as

Chester T. Smith

NASHVILLE — Chester T. Smith, 86, R. 1, Nashville, died early Sunday at Pennock Hospital, Hastings, after a short illness.

He was a charter member of Barryville - Morgan Farm Bureau group, and past chancellor of Ivy Lodge 37 of Knights of Pythias.

Surviving are two sons, Dr. Robert L. Smith, Weston Springs, Ill., and Dr. Frank B. Smith, Midland; a daughter, Mrs. James Good, Silver Springs, Md.; two brothers, Edward, Fayetteville, N.C., and Charles of Long Beach, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Leonard Fischer, Charlotte; five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist Church with burial in Lakeview Cemetery. The body is at the Vogt Funeral Home, Nashville.

upil members:

ending June 1958, any school district receiving school of this section transferred funds from the district's and site or debt retirement funds the amount of such tr school aid to be allotted the district during the school year 1958, the board of education of each district qualify for funds appropriated under section 6 of this act of public instruction.

istricts, conditions and limitations on aid

district shall become eligible to receive aid under the following conditions: (a) Professional shall meet the standards set forth in the teacher ce

Worth Ward

Funeral services were held on Monday, August 7 from the Vermontville Congregational Church for Worth A. Ward, 82, of 501 S. Main St., Vermontville, who died Thursday, August 3 at the Kimball Sanatorium in Battle Creek where he had been a patient for one month. Mr. Ward was a retired farmer and lifelong resident of the area.

He was born in Eaton County on September 16, 1884, a son of Frank L. and Mary (Haner) Ward.

On September 5, 1905 he was married in Vermontville to Catherine Green.

Surviving are his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Carl (Ruby) Banta of Battle Creek, Mrs. Elvin (Myrtle) Stillwell of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Elmer (Alice) Conard of Charlotte; four grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Ned Moraan of Pampano Beach, Fla., and a brother, Graydon Ward of Seminole, Fla.

The Rev. Marjorie Matthews was the clergyman who officiated, and burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Vermontville.

wed shall be at least 20 mills levied by the district no rent shall be included for retirement may be co been voted for a period o more than 30 mills sha ed additional aid as follo or less on the basis of its mputed by multiplying its or fraction of a mill le of at least $3,001.00 but shall be granted an additi by $4.00 times the numbe vict having a state equal the basis of its resident multiplying its resident et a mill levied over 20 201.00 or less than $9.00. of an additional sum compu C) number of mills or frac.