

Mrs. Carl A. Lentz
NASHVILLE — Mrs. Leila Lentz, 66, of 510 E. Washington st. died in Sparrow Hospital at Lansing at 6:05 a.m. today following a stroke suffered late Saturday afternoon while visiting at the home of her son, Carl A. Lentz, Jr. of Lansing. Mrs. Lentz was an art teacher at the W. K. Kellogg School here for one year prior to her marriage to Mr. Lentz on Nov. 28, 1913. She was one of the founders of the Nashville Art Group and had served as its president. She had several of her paintings exhibited in Ann Arbor and Battle Creek. She was a member of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters; the Laurel Chapter 31, Order of the Eastern Star; the Nashville Temple 79, Pythian Sisters; Past Matrons Club and Past Chief's Club of Nashville; the White Shrine of Jerusalem of Grand Rapids; and the Nashville Methodist Church. She was born March 4, 1893 in Ironwood, a daughter of John and Jane (Borlase) Luxmore. She is survived by her husband, Carl; two daughters, Mrs. Carl (Betty Jane) Ecklund of Stanford, Conn., and Mrs. Ed (Louise L.) Williamson of Depere, Wis.; the son, Carl, of Lansing; eight grandchildren; one sister, Laura Luxmore of Ironwood; one brother, John Gordon Luxmore of Bessemer; and a half-brother, William Luxmore of Detroit.

Marcel E. Evalet
HASTINGS—Marcel E. Evalet, 65, of Route 1, Hastings, died at his residence in Hastings Township at 10:55 a.m. Wednesday after an extended illness. He was born Feb. 14, 1894, in Switzerland and came to the United States in 1912, settling in Lowell, Mich. In 1920 he returned to Switzerland for three years, then came back to Lowell in 1923. On Feb. 29, 1928, he married Mrs. Nellie Adrianson in Hastings and has lived in Castleton and Hastings townships since that time. Surviving are his wife, Nellie; one daughter, Mrs. Richard (Enid) Sheppard, Route 1, Nashville; one stepson, Maurice Adrianson, Route 1, Vermontville; one step-daughter, Mrs. J. C. (Margaret) Fennell, Flint; eight grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and a sister, Nelly Evalet of Bienna, Switzerland.

Ralph E. Perky
VERMONTVILLE — Ralph E. Perky, 85, a former Vermontville assessor, died at his home at 508 S. Main st., Wednesday evening after a long illness. He had been a salesman most of his life. He came to Vermontville in 1940 and operated a restaurant here for a short time. He was village assessor for 13 years until 1958. He had been treasurer of the public library board since it was started in 1948. He was born Jan. 1, 1874, in Charlotte, the son of Alfred and Sophronia (Jacques) Perky. On June 21, 1898 he married May Pendill at Vermontville. She survives. Mr. Perky was a member of the Vermontville Congregational Church and the Lansing Lodge No. 3, F&AM. Besides his wife, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Frank (Zora) Ellsworth of Detroit.

Mrs. Myer Vomberg
CHARLOTTE — Mrs. Mary Vomberg, 94, of 221 E. Lovett st., Charlotte, a resident here for the past 68 years, died Thursday at the Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital where she had been a patient for four weeks. She was born March 26, 1865, in New York City, the daughter of Isaac and Caroline Friesner. She was married Feb. 17, 1891 to Myer Vomberg, a clothing store owner in Charlotte for more than 50 years. He died here in 1951. Mrs. Vomberg was active in community organizations until her later years. She is survived by a son, Arthur, with whom she lived.

Deaths

(For additional information on deaths and funerals turn to announcements. Classification No. 1, in the classified section.)

Dolan R. Hart
Dolan R. Hart, 51, of 518 Dexter dr., died Tuesday at a local hospital. A native of Ithaca, Mr. Hart had been a resident of Lansing for 48 years. He had been employed at Borden's Ice Cream company. Surviving are the widow, Letta M.; one brother, Lewis, of Chula Vista, Cal.; and one sister, Mrs. Velma Shanley of Monroe. Funeral services will be held Friday at 1 p. m. at the Gorsline-Runciman funeral home. Interment will be in Chapel cemetery.

Edward J. Tiedeman