

Eaton County Deaths

Mrs. Myer Vomberg

Mrs. Mary Vomberg, 94, of 221 E. Lovett st., Charlotte, a resident here for the past 68 years, died Thursday, Nov. 12, 1959 at the Hayes-Green-Beach Hospital where she had been a patient for four weeks. She was born March 26, 1865, in New York City, the daughter of Isaac and Caroline Friesner. She was married Feb. 17, 1891 to Myer Vomberg, a clothing store owner in Charlotte for more than 50 years. He died here in 1951. Mrs. Vomberg was active in community organizations until her later years. She is survived by a son, Arthur, with whom she lived. Funeral services were held Saturday at Burkhead - Cheney chapel with burial in Maple Hill cemetery.

Thursday, December 17, 1959

Lewis Vandecar Dies at Nashville

Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Pickens Funeral chapel in Lake Odessa for Lewis H. Vandecar, 78, of R3 Lake Odessa. Interment in the Lakeside cemetery with Rev. A. J. Pitman officiating.

Mr. Vandecar, a retired farmer, died Friday at the White convalescent home at Nashville where he had been cared for several months.

He was born May 27, 1881 in Ionia county, the son of Arthur and Alice Garman Vandecar, and spent most of his life in the Ionia county area. He attended Lake Odessa High school and after his marriage to Florence B. Clark, Dec. 25, 1902, they lived on farms in this area until he retired in 1943.

While on the farm he served as a director of the Odessa Center rural school for many years and was active in the Grange.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Arden (Thelma) McLaughlin, of Lake Odessa; four sons, Clayton, Vaughn, Max (Roy) and Claire, all of Lansing; one brother, William, Long Beach, Calif.; 11 grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

For a flavor accent, try brown sugar instead of white sugar in puddings and sauces.

WILLIAM C. VANDENBERG
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

192

8