

Retired Hastings Teacher Is Dead

HASTINGS — Mrs. Ala S. Myers, 67, of 320 W. Walnut st., widow of Royal Myers and for 36 years a teacher in the Hastings school system, died in a Battle Creek hospital Thursday morning a few minutes after arriving by ambulance.

Mrs. Myers had been in ill health since an automobile accident a year ago.

She taught in the Hastings schools beginning in 1921, and retiring in June, 1958. For 30 years, she was teacher of the fifth grade at Central School and while teaching was active in the Hastings Teachers Club and the Barry County Education Assn.

She was also a member of the Michigan Education Assn. and of the National Education Assn.

Mrs. Myers belonged to the Hastings First Methodist Church, singing in the chancel choir for more than 30 years. She was a member of the Business and Professional Women's Hospital Guild.

Mrs. Myers was born in Vermontville, daughter of Ernest and Laura (Hay) Slatterlee. Surviving are a step-son, Sumner Myers of Goshen, Ind.; two brothers, Glenn Slatterlee of Vermontville and Walter Slatterlee of Charlotte; a sister, Mrs. Clarence (Winifred) Koob of Route 3, Hastings, and two step-grandchildren.

The body will remain at Walldorff Funeral Home until shortly before the services at 2 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church, the Rev. Dr. William H. Helrigel, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Woodland Memorial Cemetery.

Senator from 15th

held the key positions.

The British established and the Mackinaw Company trade, an influential war.

The American dominated systematic organization

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Davis

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Davis, 78, widow of Dr. George Davis, died Tuesday afternoon, May 3, 1960 in a Flint hospital. She had been assistant librarian at the Vermontville library since its founding in 1949. She is survived by a son, Dr. Robert C. Davis of Flint; a sister, Mrs. Vance Barber of Vermontville; a brother, Dan Hickey of Bronson, and three grandchildren. Rosary was said at 8:30 p.m. Thursday at the Vogt funeral home, Vermontville. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Friday at St. Cyril's Catholic church, Nashville.

where defeated. of Michigan until after the Jay Treaty, although the

SERVICES MONDAY FOR LE ROY WISE

Funeral services were held Monday from the Vogt funeral home for LeRoy P. Wise 70, a former Vermontville resident.

Mr. passed away April 27 at Veterans hospital in Dearborn. His home was at Gladwin.

He is survived by his wife Emeline.

Rev. E. F. Rhoades officiated and burial was in the Freemire cemetery. Graveside services were conducted by the American Legion Post 222 of Vermontville

Luella Watrous

Feb. 27, 1903 — May 4, 1960

FUNERAL SERVICES

Vogt Funeral Home

Friday, May 6 — 2 p.m.

CLERGYMAN OFFICIATING

Rev. Keith Pohl

PALLBEARERS

Ben Kenyon

Walter Kent

Jerry Kent

A. E. Halvarson

Robert Partridge

Carroll Hamilton

BURIAL

Lakeview Cemetery
Nashville, Michigan

Fathers Jogues first permanent Sainte Marie of the French 1763 closed the continent, and all n. The frontier ion of Montreal and who under- mined resistance ip of the great pon the British t Mackinaw, on e garrison mas- successfully, and to the United al Congress, eared but few families ce of British Toledo). By of Michigan n River, also

y with Great thdrawn from s took posses-

e early Amer- e fur trade of aring animals

le bois (forest andy man who ects, a shrewd th, capable of he heavy packs Gallic temper-st romantic and severe laws and der worked side trading-post, and mac and Detroit. importance were River.

n and Englishman ve control of this Indians a higher s with liquor and von the friendship fe, and besides he al wars.

orthwest Company hold on the Michi- after the Revolu-racterized by more ng grounds. It was