Funeral Rites
Are Held Today
For Mrs. Mumford

Funeral services for Mrs. Leu-ell Mumford, 710 Chittenden dr., East Lansing, whose late husband was a professor of sociology for several years at Michigan State university, were held at 2:30 p. m. today at the Estes-Leadley funeral home. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery. Mrs. Mumford's husband, Eben, died Oct. 17, 1942. Prior to his professorship at M. S. U., he taught at Michigan Agricultural college, now M. S. U., and at one time headed extension clubs at M. A. C.

Former Cashier
At Sunfield Dies

(Special to The State Journal)
SUNFIELD, Feb. 9 — Mrs. Lucille H. Ducker, 62, of R. 1, Vermontville, died Wednesday at a Charlotte hospital. She was cashier of the old Sunfield bank for 14 years, and a lifelong resident of Sunfield township. Death was attributed to a stroke although her health had been failing in recent years. She was hospitalized for one day. She is survived by the husband, Edward, and a son, Howard, of New York state. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon at the Mapes funeral home. Rev. Don Carrick of United Bretheran church will officiate.
