

Funeral Services For Roy E. Weeks Held Wednesday

Roy E. Weeks, 75, of Vermontville, died in the DeWitt Convalescent home at 5:15 a.m. Monday where he had been cared for the past three weeks.

Mr. Weeks, who served as president of the Vermontville Maple Syrup corporation in 1949 and 50, was a retired farmer and filling station attendant.

He was born in Olivet on July 26, 1886, a son of Milton B. and Maria J. (Zimmerman) Weeks. On December 14, 1909, he was married to Carrie May Cronk, in the Methodist parsonage. The couple lived in Grand Ledge for nine years and in Marshall one year before they purchased a farm west of Vermontville.

In 1940 they moved into the village.

Besides the wife, Mr. Weeks is

Clare Kirtland

Clare Kirtland, 68, of Sunfield died Thursday morning, June 14, 1962, at an Ann Arbor hospital. A pharmacist, he owned and operated a drug store for many years and was active in its management until hospitalized a few weeks ago. Survivors include the widow, Losia; two daughters, Mrs. Sue Taylor, Fruitport, and Mrs. Evelyn Gunn, Lansing; two brothers in California, five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. The body was returned to the Mapes funeral home, Sunfield, for services.

Charles L. DeGraw

NASHVILLE, March 31—Charles L. DeGraw, 84, formerly of Nashville, died Friday night in a Marshall hospital where he had been a patient for two and a half years. Surviving are two sons, Fred and Cecil, both of Battle Creek. The body is at the Vogt funeral home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

The Newberry of land comprising 560 acres 1895 and the first patient now embraces 1,500 acres of land. The institution in the form of a quadrangle and a receiving hospital. In 1941 a children's unit for mentally deficient children, with a capacity of 220 beds, was opened. The current survived by a son, Robert L. Weeks, Nashville; five grandchildren; three great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Lura Reemsem of Delton.

Services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday from the Vogt Funeral home with the Rev. Howard Lindsay, officiating. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Roy Weeks

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Vogt Funeral home for Roy E. Weeks, 75. Mr. Weeks passed away early Monday morning at a Hastings Convalescent home where he had been a patient for three weeks. He had been in ill health for several years.

Mr. Weeks was born July 26, 1886 at Olivet, the son of Milton B. and Maria J. Zimmerman Weeks. December 14, 1909 he was married to Carrie Cronk. They first lived in Grand Ledge, later moving to a farm east of Vermontville where they lived for 22 years. He was owner and operator of a Shell Station here for 15 years, and was in the Standard Station for two years, when ill health forced him to retire.

Surviving besides the widow is one son, Robert L. Weeks of R 2 Nashville, one sister, Mrs. Lura Reemsem of Delton; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Rev. Howard Lindsay and Rev. Edwin Clark officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery.

conducted by the writer and C. F. Olson.

F. M. EMBERTON

Harmon.—Rose, born June 12, 1878, died May 31, 1962, at Charlotte, Mich. An earnest Christian, devoted member of the F. M. church, she leaves a rich spiritual heritage to her family of 3 daughters, 6 sons, 36 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren, and 19 great-great-grandchildren. Funeral conducted by the writer and F. L. Habecker Sr. Vincent C. Myers.

May 15, 1962. The property of the children's unit for mentally deficient children, with a capacity of 220 beds, was opened. The current

Medical Superintendent
Medical Superintendent
Steward

on of its kind in 1,889.37, and was hospital are about e thousand acres. nd control of the ended by Act 104, ssion were trans-

Superintendent
Steward

Feeble-minded at the city of me was built 90 buildings, ation is 4,410. Hospital Com- A. 1937. The to the Depart-

DOL

Superintendent
Steward

1, among other to the already school for the inded persons, This institution which property t and used for raining School. control of the led by Act 104, ion were trans-

perintendent
perintendent
Steward

593. A tract n the fall of The property zes arranged children's unit for mentally deficient children, with a capacity of 220 beds, was opened. The current