

Victim After

Charles B. Sunfield

Sunfield—Charles B. Sunfield, 51, of Sunfield, died at a local hospital, received in last Tuesday. Employed by Sunfield Lumber Co., in Sunfield, his worth was $10,000. He was meeting in his car, at the control and three and one of Lake Odessa.

Passing—Lawrence Sunfield, who was in poor condition at the hospital where he was for rib and hospital at Sunfield, died at the hospital at Sunfield. He is survived by his wife, Margaret; two sons, Charles and Bosworth; and three daughters, Allen, Lawrence and Services. Burial was Tuesday in Sunfield.

Accident Rites

(Special SUNFIELD) Services for Mrs. Maud Generva Corey, 83, will be held at the Ward funeral home at 2 Thursday. Mrs. Corey died Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Marion, of Vermontville. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery. Mrs. Corey had been a resident of Vermontville for 80 years.

Death Takes Mrs. Henry

Funeral services were held November 20 for Mrs. Helen J. Henry, wife of J. G. Henry, director of industrial relations. Mrs. Henry died November 17 after an illness of several weeks.

She was active in humane society work and had been membership secretary of the organization for several years. A member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Mrs. Henry also was active in the American Legion auxiliary and the Lansing Eastern Band Mothers.

Surviving are Mr. Henry, and two sons, Robert and Lawrence. The Reverend George R. Selway, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church officiated at services and interment was in Deepdale Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Harold J. Reniger, David J. Reniger, Dr. W. O. Martin, Carl Letzring, Stanley Brauer and Phillip W. Klintworth.

VERMONTVILLE, Clinton county

Funeral services for Mr. Weyant, who died Saturday morning, will be held at the Estes-Leadley Colonial chapel at 1 o'clock Tuesday. Rev. James Whitehurst of Central Methodist church will officiate, with interment in Gresham cemetery in Eaton county. Mr. Weyant was born at Altoona, Pa., May 27, 1868; living in this vicinity for the past 30 years. Pallbearers will be Herbert Fizzell, Fred Krull, Julius Nobach, Morris Parks, Herbert Hardtke and Clair Roosa.

VERMONTVILLE — Services for Mrs. Maud Generva Corey, 83, will be held at the Ward funeral home at 2 Thursday. Mrs. Corey died Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Marion, of Vermontville. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery. Mrs. Corey had been a resident of Vermontville for 80 years.

C. J. Dingler Service Held

Charles J. Dingler, 51, an employe of Motor Wheel since October 22, 1940, died recently. He had worked in the Plant No. 2 stock room during the entire period of his employment.

Mr. Dingler

Services were held November 11 from the Peters' funeral home, Grand Ledge. Mr. Dingler is survived by the wife, Gladys; four sons, Charles Jr., Robert P., Thomas W., and Terry L., and his mother, Mrs. Maude Dingler of Grand Ledge.

Pallbearers were Merle Sattler, Earl Sattler, Max Pierce Lynn Waldo, Lee Waldo and Charles McKee. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, Grand Ledge.

Former County Treasurer Dies

Bird L. Rogers, 78, former Eaton county treasurer and Eaton Rapids township treasurer and supervisor, died Sunday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Earl Harmon of Vermontville township.

Mr. Rogers held his various posts during the late 1920's and early 1930's. In addition he served as treasurer of the Barry & Eaton Mutual Insurance company for several years. He was the owner of a large farm.

Besides the daughter with whom he lived, he is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Bernice Gairfield, Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Violet Hammon, Clinton; 3 children and several great-grandchildren. Arlo is an employe of the state highway department in Charlotte.

Last rites were held Wednesday at 2:00 p. m. at the Pettit funeral home in Eaton Rapids, with Rev. Ernest Kelford officiating. Burial in Oakwood cemetery there.