

REP. PAUL W. SHAFER.

when elected Battle Creek justice M Kimball died in office in 1936, or to attend the Township Native of the peace in 1929 and again in Funeral Friday.

The body will be returned by a government plane to Battle Creek TICLE Thursday.

Funeral services will be held at Battle Creek First Congregational church at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

His death left the house lineup at 218 Republicans, 213 Democrats, one independent and three vacan- ve DEPAI brothers, Marion Wheaton of Mus-

Additional details on page 2.

at the poils independent, or an lature; all any act passed by the legislature, except acts r

Eaton Surveyor Dies at Charlotte

THE

rine in t

POWERS

y instituexpense, oldiers, ediders, edi

st., did most of the county surveying over the past several years, and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are the widow, Ethel; on is sub children, and a sister, Mrs. Wilson ablic mor Brugh, all of Charlotte.

electors w Funeral services will be held y to be a head chapel, with Rev. H. B. Loomis officiating. Interment will his atter be at the Perry cemetery.

vise chose Dies at Charlotte Home

He is survived by two sisters, to prese te, and to the State Journal) Mrs. H. Earl Kanaga of Battle cord and Creek and Mrs. Frank King of the number of the died Friday night at the home at 211 Upland ave. here. She was a life-long resident of the county, a native of Chester township, and the daughter of Henry and Caronent are line Beeman Wheaton.

Surviving are the husband, Aldepartm bert Nelson Bottomley; a daughes expres ter, Mrs. Harold Oliver of Lansing; two sisters, Mrs. Virginia
Bricker of Charlotte and Mrs. John TICLE Simpson of Chester township; two wer of the kegon and Lynn Wheaton of Col-

Services will be held Monday at d to propose he initiative ive petitions secretary of w to receive legislature. eipt of any tutions and to meet deficiencies in state funds. T T+ never-tood veu by the people is the initiative. Qualified and registered electors of the state equal in number to at least 8 per cent of the total vote cast for all candidates for governor, at the last preceding general election at which a governor was alasted