

50

ch will include instruction

illage Head's Father Passes

Nashville—Frank M. Green, 69, son of Jack Green, Nashville village president, died Tuesday of heart attack at his farm home, seven and a half miles northeast of Nashville.

Born in Baltimore township, Perry county, he moved to the farm near Nashville about 10 months ago. Mr. Green had operated a hauling service. He owned his own trucks.

Survivors include his wife, Francis; a daughter, Mrs. Bruce Summ of Nashville; two sons, Morris of Saranac; Richard D. of Nashville; two brothers, William of Port Pierce, Fla., and Albert of Middleville; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Mayo of Battle Creek and Mrs. Claude Mayo of Battle Creek, and nine grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2:30 Friday at the Otto funeral home. Burial in Lakeview cemetery.

UBLICAN-TRIBUNE

MRS. HELEN BOTTOMLEY

Sept. 18, 1872-Oct. 15, 1954

Helen Josephine Wheaton was born Sept. 18, 1872 in Chester township to Henry and Caroline Wheaton, and passed from this life Oct. 15, 1954 at her home, 211 Upland ave., Charlotte.

On June 28, 1893, she was united in marriage to Albert N. Bottomley. One daughter was born to this union, Mrs. Bernice Olver of Lansing.

All her life had been lived in this area—as a young woman she taught in the Kelly, Strange, Quantrell and Needmore schools. Fifty-five years of her married life were lived in Chester township, and the past six in the city of Charlotte.

Mrs. Bottomley was active in community work and in the of Grange, and for many years was, together with Mr. Bottomley, a member of quartets which participated in burial services for friends and neighbors.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. Albert Bottomley; a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Olver; two brothers, Lynn Wheaton of Colton, Cal., and Marion Wheaton of Muskegon; and two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Bricker of this city and Mrs. Mary Simpson of Chester township.

Mrs. Bottomley's cheerful smile, even in illness, and her willingness to help in time of trouble will be greatly missed by family and friends.

for two years and by single districts, thirty-two, inclusive, each of which divided in the formation of senatorial entitled to two or more senators.

(a) SEC. 3. The house of representatives shall be composed of members more than one hundred members and by single districts, which shall contain inhabitants and shall consist of conv or city shall be divided in the format a city is composed of territory in n county line or lines: And provided, created or territory annexed to an in its present representative district ship or city shall contain a population then such township or city shall elec to which it is entitled. Each county shall be entitled to a separate repres to a moiety of the ratio of represent representative, the board of supervis be prescribed by law, divide the same into nber of representatives to which such county is entitled by law, and shall ed in the offices of the secretary of state and clerk of such county a description of such representative districts, specifying the number of each district and population thereof according to the last preceding enumeration.

SEC. 4. At the session in 1913, and each tenth year thereafter, the legislature shall by law rearrange the senatorial districts and apportion anew the representatives among the counties and districts according to the number of inhabitants, using as the basis for such apportionment the last preceding United States census of this state. Each apportionment so made, and the division of any county into representative

(a) Amendment adopted November 6, 1928.