Aged Lose Real Friend

Mrs. Maude Beadle Was Pioneer in Operation of 'Nursing Homes'

Lansing's aged lost a real and personal friend Wednesday afternoon in the death of Mrs. Maude Beadle.

Mrs. Beadle, a pioneer in the operation of nursing homes, had operated the Beadle Convalescent hospital, 1300 High st., for 25 years.

For her work in the rehabilitation of the chronically ill, Mrs. Beadle was highly praised by Lansing physicians.

"Mrs. Beadle started applying the principle of rehabilitation to the chronically ill when it was very, very new," Dr. Frederick C. Swartz, one of the founders of the Ingham county rehabilitation center, said of her.

"I have found very few people who had the interest of patients more at heart."

In order to keep up with the latest advancements in rehabilitation and to offer her weighty advice she served on the advisory board of the Ingham County Rehabilitation Center, Dr. Swartz said.
