H. F. Sinclair Served Contempt Term

Pasadena, Calif.—(AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, 80, founder of the Sinclair Oil corporation, died at his home Saturday night.

Sinclair became one of the nation's wealthiest men. He was the owner of famed race horses and the head of a billion-dollar corporation.

In 1949, at the age of 72, he retired from active management of the Sinclair Co. and five years later as board chairman.

Studied Pharmacy.

Sinclair was born at Wheeling, W. Va., July 16, 1876. He was educated in the public schools at Independence, Kan., and took a pharmacy course at the University of Kansas.

But he left the drug store to go prospecting, first in Kansas and then in Oklahoma. He became a lease broker and then an independent producer. In 1916 he established offices in New York city.

In the 1920s Sinclair's name figured prominently in the Teapot Dome oil scandals of the Warren G. Harding administration.

Defied Senate.

In 1927 and 1928 Sinclair was tried on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in the leasing of Teapot Dome, a United States navy oil reserve in Wyoming. He was acquitted on this charge but did spend six and a half months in the District of Columbia jail in 1929 for contempt of court and contempt of the United States senate.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Bede's Catholic church, La Canada, Calif., at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery, Los Angeles.
